Introduction

The group is crucial for the psychosocial development of children and adolescents. At the same time, when bullying situations occur in this educational unit, they can have serious emotional and psychological consequences for those involved. Therefore, it is essential to work on the prevention and resolution of such conflicts using the most advanced tools. In this context, TECH offers a study program that delves into the roles and responsibilities of the educator in the face of violence in the classroom. The comprehensive syllabus delves into strategies such as the use of humor to counteract bullying behavior. On the other hand, the program uses innovative didactic methods such as Relearning and different multimedia resources to facilitate the understanding of the most complex and recent trends and concepts in this field.

This TECH Postgraduate Certificate guarantees you a holistic understanding of situations of violence within student groups and their educational, psychological, social and legal implications"

The group is fundamental for the psychosocial development of children and adolescents, since it is where interpersonal relationships are established, communication skills are learned and identity and self-esteem are developed. However, when bullying or harassment situations arise in this nucleus, the consequences can be serious. The victims of these practices can suffer emotional and psychological problems, generating a negative climate among classmates and a culture of violence.

In this context, it is imperative to work on the prevention and resolution of these conflicts in the classroom. To this end, advanced skills are needed to recognize the most frequent dynamics in the school and family environment that affect children and adolescents. On the other hand, professionals in this field must be prepared to develop group activities and the use of techniques such as humor to reduce bullying.

To address all these aspects, TECH has composed a comprehensive and intensive Postgraduate Certificate in 100% online format. The syllabus will delve into the roles and responsibilities of the educator in different contexts of verbal, physical or psychological violence among children and adolescents. At the same time, it will examine all the tools and strategies for dealing with these kinds of situations, delving into the most up-to-date trends for solving these kinds of problems.

This program is supported by multimedia resources, such as videos and infographics, to provide students with a holistic understanding of different complex concepts. These materials are available on an interactive platform where the contents will be freely accessible, 24 hours a day, without restrictive study schedules. In addition, the Relearning learning methodology will enable them to master these topics in a fast and flexible way.

This Postgraduate Certificate in Group Management in Bullying Resolution contains the most complete and up-to-date educational program on the market. Its most notable features are:

04

Methodology

This training program offers a different way of learning. Our methodology uses a cyclical learning approach: Relearning.

This teaching system is used, for example, in the most prestigious medical schools in the world, and major publications such as the New England Journal of Medicine have considered it to be one of the most effective.

“

Discover Relearning, a system that abandons conventional linear learning, to take you through cyclical teaching systems: a way of learning that has proven to be extremely effective, especially in subjects that require memorization"

At TECH Education School we use the Case Method

In a given situation, what should a professional do? Throughout the program students will be presented with multiple simulated cases based on real situations, where they will have to investigate, establish hypotheses and, finally, resolve the situation. There is an abundance of scientific evidence on the effectiveness of the method.

With TECH, educators can experience a learning methodology that is shaking the foundations of traditional universities around the world.

It is a technique that develops critical skills and prepares educators to make decisions, defend their arguments, and contrast opinions.

Did you know that this method was developed in 1912, at Harvard, for law students? The case method consisted of presenting students with real-life, complex situations for them to make decisions and justify their decisions on how to solve them. In 1924, Harvard adopted it as a standard teaching method”

The effectiveness of the method is justified by four fundamental achievements:

1. Educators who follow this method not only grasp concepts, but also develop their mental capacity, by evaluating real situations and applying their knowledge.
2. The learning process is solidly focused on practical skills that allow educators to better integrate the knowledge into daily practice.
3. Ideas and concepts are understood more efficiently, given that the example situations are based on real-life teaching.
4. Students like to feel that the effort they put into their studies is worthwhile. This then translates into a greater interest in learning and more time dedicated to working on the course.

Relearning Methodology

At TECH we enhance the case method with the best 100% online teaching methodology available: Relearning.

Our University is the first in the world to combine case studies with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, combining a minimum of 8 different elements in each lesson, which represent a real revolution with respect to simply studying and analyzing cases.

Educators will learn through real cases and by solving complex situations in simulated learning environments. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

At the forefront of world teaching, the Relearning method has managed to improve the overall satisfaction levels of professionals who complete their studies, with respect to the quality indicators of the best online university (Columbia University).

With this methodology we have trained more than 85,000 educators with unprecedented success in all specialties. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 43.5 years.

Relearning will allow you to learn with less effort and better performance, involving you more in your specialization, developing a critical mindset, defending arguments, and contrasting opinions: a direct equation to success.

In our program, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (learn, unlearn, forget, and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

This program offers the best educational material, prepared with professionals in mind:
