Introduction

To engage in theological criticism based on theology or any branch of Religious Studies, professionals must know the formal theological principles involved in the theological reading of Sacred Scripture: canonicity, inspiration and inerrancy, which will enable solvent work in all aspects related to the explanation of the fact of Divine Revelation. Throughout this exceptional program, students will be able to analyze the different facts of the Revealed Word of God and other relevant historical books with a broad and effective criterion. A deep and complete study that will boost the knowledge of theologians in this area to the next level.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with ʒ publicans and h sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, † I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, h but sinners to repentance.

14 † Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, † Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can m the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and n then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of 2 new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 † o While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler,

with a woman, with an issue of blood, came behind and touched the hem of his garment.

And she said within herself, If I only touch his garment, I shall be whole.

And when Jesus turned him about, and saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; † thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 † And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw † the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, † Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And 2 the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 † And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, † Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straightly charged them, saying, † See that no man know it.

31 ʒ But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 † 2 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, † He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 h And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, † teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 † d But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they 3 fainted, and were scattered abroad, e as sheep without a shepherd.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, teacheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions: 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND ^a when he had called unto them power ² against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, ^b who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

4 ^c Simon the Canaanite, and Judas ^d Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, ^e Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 ^f But go rather to the ^h lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 ⁱ And as ye go, preach, saying, ^k The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: ^l freely ye have received, freely give.

9 ^m Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor ⁿ brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet ^o staves: ^p for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 ^q And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 ^r And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: ^s but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 ^t And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, ^u shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^v who shall be more tolerable for them that dwell in Sodom and Gomorrhah than for them that do so? ^w I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for them that dwell in Sodom and Gomorrhah than for them that do so.

16 ^x Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: ^y ye therefore shall be as the sheep which is in the midst of wolves.

17 ^z Whosoever will take the life of the body, will lose the life of the soul: ^{aa} but whosoever will lose the life of the body, will save the life of the soul.

18 ^{ab} Whosoever will save the life of the body, will lose the life of the soul: ^{ac} but whosoever will lose the life of the body, will save the life of the soul.

19 ^{ad} For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

20 ^{ae} And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

21 ^{af} And he shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: ^{ag} but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

22 ^{ah} But ^{ai} when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not ^{aj} have gone over the cities of Israel, ^{ak} till the Son of man be come.

23 ^{al} The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

24 ^{am} It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. ^{an} If ^{ao} they have called the master of the house ^{ap} Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

25 ^{aq} Fear them not therefore: ^{ar} for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

26 ^{as} What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

27 ^{at} And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

28 ^{au} Are not two sparrows sold for a ^{av} farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father's will.

29 ^{aw} But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

30 ^{ax} Fear ye not therefore: ^{ay} for more value than all these things have I set upon your heads.

31 ^{az} Whosoever confesses me before men, I will confess him before my Father which is in heaven.

32 ^{ba} Whosoever denies me before men, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

33 ^{bb} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

34 ^{bc} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

35 ^{bd} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

36 ^{be} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

37 ^{bf} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

38 ^{bg} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

39 ^{bh} Whosoever will deny me before me, and before my Father which is in heaven, I will deny him before my Father which is in heaven.

The complete analysis of biblical texts, with the keys of hermeneutics and the indispensable elements for its understanding, all in a high level academic course”

Within the field of Theology and Religious Studies, studying the Revealed Word of God is one of the most interesting areas of analysis to answer the mysteries that took place billions of years ago. Throughout the program, students will acquire knowledge of hermeneutics, a necessary analytical tool to study and understand biblical texts.

One of the bases for understanding the contents of the books studied in this area is the contextualization of the theological thought on Old Testament prophets in the general field of biblical revelation, since it helps to identify the fundamental characteristics of the history and structure of the works that constitute prophetic literature.

Students will recognize the Gospel literary genre in its first synoptic form, understand the contexts that generated its production, analyze the main theological themes that emerge from it and the text of the Acts of the Apostles, which will allow them to discuss the different hypotheses presented throughout history.

Through this program, students will also gain access to a way of working in which the scientific method is incorporated into religious thought, in favor of a global analysis of all its implications and developments. A 100% online program, with no fixed schedules or cumbersome procedures.

This Postgraduate Diploma in The Revealed Word of God contains the most complete and up-to-date educational program on the market. The most important features include:

Methodology

This academic program offers students a different way of learning. Our methodology uses a cyclical learning approach: Relearning.

This teaching system is used, for example, in the most prestigious medical schools in the world, and major publications such as the New England Journal of Medicine have considered it to be one of the most effective.

Discover Relearning, a system that abandons conventional linear learning, to take you through cyclical teaching systems: a way of learning that has proven to be extremely effective, especially in subjects that require memorization"

Case Study to contextualize all content

Our program offers a revolutionary approach to developing skills and knowledge. Our goal is to strengthen skills in a changing, competitive, and highly demanding environment.

At TECH, you will experience a learning methodology that is shaking the foundations of traditional universities around the world"

You will have access to a learning system based on repetition, with natural and progressive teaching throughout the entire syllabus.

A learning method that is different and innovative

This TECH program is an intensive educational program, created from scratch, which presents the most demanding challenges and decisions in this field, both nationally and internationally. This methodology promotes personal and professional growth, representing a significant step towards success. The case method, a technique that lays the foundation for this content, ensures that the most current economic, social and professional reality is taken into account.

“Our program prepares you to face new challenges in uncertain environments and achieve success in your career”

The student will learn to solve complex situations in real business environments through collaborative activities and real cases.

The case method has been the most widely used learning system among the world's leading Humanities schools for as long as they have existed. The case method was developed in 1912 so that law students would not only learn the law based on theoretical content. It consisted of presenting students with real-life, complex situations for them to make informed decisions and value judgments on how to resolve them. In 1924, Harvard adopted it as a standard teaching method.

What should a professional do in a given situation? This is the question we face in the case method, an action-oriented learning method. Throughout the program, the studies will be presented with multiple real cases. They will have to combine all their knowledge and research, and argue and defend their ideas and decisions.

Relearning Methodology

TECH effectively combines the Case Study methodology with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines 8 different teaching elements in each lesson.

We enhance the Case Study with the best 100% online teaching method: Relearning.

In 2019, we obtained the best learning results of all online universities in the world.

At TECH you will learn using a cutting-edge methodology designed to train the executives of the future. This method, at the forefront of international teaching, is called Relearning.

Our university is the only one in the world authorized to employ this successful method. In 2019, we managed to improve our students' overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives...) based on the best online university indicators.

In our program, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (learn, unlearn, forget, and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically. With this methodology we have trained more than 650,000 university graduates with unprecedented success in fields as diverse as biochemistry, genetics, surgery, international law, management skills, sports science, philosophy, law, engineering, journalism, history, markets, and financial instruments. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 43.5 years.

Relearning will allow you to learn with less effort and better performance, involving you more in your training, developing a critical mindset, defending arguments, and contrasting opinions: a direct equation for success.

From the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images and memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus, to retain it in our long-term memory.

In this way, and in what is called neurocognitive context-dependent e-learning, the different elements in our program are connected to the context where the individual carries out their professional activity.

This program offers the best educational material, prepared with professionals in mind:

Study Material

All teaching material is produced by the specialists who teach the course, specifically for the course, so that the teaching content is highly specific and precise.

These contents are then applied to the audiovisual format, to create the TECH online working method. All this, with the latest techniques that offer high quality pieces in each and every one of the materials that are made available to the student.

Classes

There is scientific evidence suggesting that observing third-party experts can be useful.

Learning from an Expert strengthens knowledge and memory, and generates confidence in future difficult decisions.

Practising Skills and Abilities

They will carry out activities to develop specific skills and abilities in each subject area. Exercises and activities to acquire and develop the skills and abilities that a specialist needs to develop in the context of the globalization that we are experiencing.

Additional Reading

Recent articles, consensus documents and international guidelines, among others. In TECH's virtual library, students will have access to everything they need to complete their course.

Case Studies

Students will complete a selection of the best case studies chosen specifically for this program. Cases that are presented, analyzed, and supervised by the best specialists in the world.

Interactive Summaries

The TECH team presents the contents attractively and dynamically in multimedia lessons that include audio, videos, images, diagrams, and concept maps in order to reinforce knowledge.

This exclusive educational system for presenting multimedia content was awarded by Microsoft as a "European Success Story".

Testing & Retesting

We periodically evaluate and re-evaluate students' knowledge throughout the program, through assessment and self-assessment activities and exercises, so that they can see how they are achieving their goals.
