Introduction

The management of feelings is especially important in the infantile and juvenile stage, since it directly influences the construction of the personality and the way of relating to the young person's environment. Its incorrect control gives rise to problems in overcoming adversities or assuming the negative circumstances experienced throughout life, making psychological intervention necessary to develop a full emotional capacity. Given this context, TECH has created this program, which will provide students with the best tools of Emotional Intelligence to deal with people with high abilities or functional diversity and enhance their psychological praxis. In addition, students will be able to combine their learning with their personal life thanks to the 100% online mode of this program.

Thanks to this Postgraduate Certificate, you will adopt the best strategies of Emotional Intelligence to deal with young patients with high abilities or functional diversity”

Emotional Intelligence is a quality that allows a person to understand and adequately classify the different feelings experienced in their lives, but also those of others, applying empathy and without making value judgments towards their emotions in order to promote their mental well-being. Therefore, this attribute is essential for any self-respecting psychologist, especially for those who work with child and adolescent patients, since the use of strategies based on EI is the key to help them overcome the problems that arise in adolescence and later adulthood successfully.

Given this circumstance, TECH has opted to promote this Postgraduate Certificate through which the Psychology professionals will increase their skills in the field of Emotional Intelligence to optimize their therapy with various types of patients, with emphasis on children and adolescents. During 6 weeks of intensive learning, the students will identify the different current models of EI and will analyze the components that this quality requires to develop adequately in the individual. In addition, students will detect how the family intervenes directly in the construction of EQ and will master the evaluation methods to establish the levels of EQ present in each person.

Thanks to the 100% online methodology in which this academic program is taught, students will be able to develop their own study schedules in order to achieve effective learning. In the same way, they will have access to extensive didactic contents available in formats such as complementary readings, explanatory video or interactive summary, in order to enjoy an enjoyable and fully individualized teaching.

05

Methodology

This academic program offers students a different way of learning. Our methodology uses a cyclical learning approach: Relearning

This teaching system is used, for example, in the most prestigious medical schools in the world, and major publications such as the New England Journal of Medicine have considered it to be one of the most effective.

Discover Relearning, a system that abandons conventional linear learning, to take you through cyclical teaching systems: a way of learning that has proven to be extremely effective, especially in subjects that require memorization"

At TECH we use the Case Method

What should a professional do in a given situation? Throughout the program, students will face multiple simulated clinical cases, based on real patients, in which they will have to do research, establish hypotheses, and ultimately resolve the situation. There is an abundance of scientific evidence on the effectiveness of the method. Specialists learn better, faster, and more sustainably over time.

With TECH the psychologist experiences a way of learning that is shaking the foundations of traditional universities around the world.

According to Dr. Gérvas, the clinical case is the annotated presentation of a patient, or group of patients, which becomes a "case", an example or model that illustrates some peculiar clinical component, either because of its teaching power or because of its uniqueness or rarity. It is essential that the case is based on current professional life, trying to recreate the real conditions in the psychologist's professional practice.

Did you know that this method was developed in 1912, at Harvard, for law students? The case method consisted of presenting students with real-life, complex situations for them to make decisions and justify their decisions on how to solve them. In 1924, Harvard adopted it as a standard teaching method”

The effectiveness of the method is justified by four fundamental achievements:

1. Psychologists who follow this method not only master the assimilation of concepts, but also develop their mental capacity by means of exercises to evaluate real situations and apply their knowledge.
2. Learning is solidly translated into practical skills that allow the psychologist to better integrate knowledge into clinical practice.
3. Ideas and concepts are understood more efficiently, given that the example situations are based on real-life.
4. Students like to feel that the effort they put into their studies is worthwhile. This then translates into a greater interest in learning and more time dedicated to working on the course.

Relearning Methodology

At TECH we enhance the case method with the best 100% online teaching methodology available: Relearning.

Our university is the first in the world to combine the study of clinical cases with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, combining a minimum of 8 different elements in each lesson, which is a real revolution compared to the simple study and analysis of cases.

The psychologist will learn through real cases and by solving complex situations in simulated learning environments. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

At the forefront of world teaching, the Relearning method has managed to improve the overall satisfaction levels of professionals who complete their studies, with respect to the quality indicators of the best online university (Columbia University).

This methodology has trained more than 150,000 psychologists with unprecedented success in all clinical specialties. Our pedagogical methodology is developed in a highly competitive environment, with a university student body with a strong socioeconomic profile and an average age of 43.5 years old.

Relearning will allow you to learn with less effort and better performance, involving you more in your training, developing a critical mindset, defending arguments, and contrasting opinions: a direct equation for success.

In our program, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (learn, unlearn, forget, and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

This program offers the best educational material, prepared with professionals in mind:
