01 Welcome

Italy has one of the strongest economies, ranking eighth in the world in this respect. Learning this language opens up new career opportunities, especially in fields related to engineering products, textiles and clothing. Furthermore, the country's universities and educational institutions score well in the World University Ranking, excelling in areas such as finance, archeology, physics and the performing arts. Whether for professional or academic reasons, TECH has developed this Language Course for all those who want to acquire a more advanced level of Italian, with native teachers and a unique teaching methodology.

Enroll now and get access to hundreds of exercises and practical support resources that will be essential during your learning”

Introduction

Italy has excelled in many fields for millennia. It is home to the best writers, the most emblematic gastronomic dishes in the world and, of course, some of the most renowned fashion houses in the industry today. Therefore, it is not surprising that there is a growing demand to learn Italian, which translates into better professional, academic and personal opportunities. With this B1 Italian Language Course, students will improve their linguistic skills to an intermediate level, being able to function with greater fluency and ease. As it is based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, this Language Course serves as an excellent springboard to achieve the desired level certification.

You will pass the Level B1 Italian exam thanks to the comprehensive and extensive material support you will find in this program.

You will be able to take this course completely online and with the assistance of a native teacher of the language.

It is proven that learning languages increases your intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks”

02

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society. Nowadays, students must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes their proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

“

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive training based 100% on the CEFR"

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards diplomas that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH, we offer you the only intensive Language Course to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

Learn Italian and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate gives you a diploma for life.

“

You will have a comprehensive and complete syllabus at your disposal in all the competences of CEFR Level B1”

03

What Is Level B1?

Level B1 is part of the Independent User Level, which is divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Independent User Level (B1 and B2).

B1

In TECH's B1 Italian Language Course we thoroughly prepare you to obtain your official B1 Italian language certificate"

What are the B1 Level Skills?

Level B1 is part of the Independent User Level, which is divided into two sublevels: First and Second Independent User Level (B1 and B2). Level B1 has two main features: the first is the ability to maintain interaction and to make oneself understood in a variety of situations.

The second characteristic is the ability to know how to deal flexibly with everyday problems. Most of the descriptors that are used in social functions are found at this level, such as, for example:

01

Can understand the main points of clear, standard-language texts on familiar matters, whether in work, study or leisure situations

02

Knows how to deal with most of the situations that may arise during a trip in areas where the language is used

“

Certifying Italian Level B1 brings with it numerous opportunities. Enroll now and progress personally and professionally thanks to TECH”

03

Produce simple and coherent texts on topics that are familiar to him/her or in which he/she has a personal interest

04

Can describe experiences, events, desires and aspirations, as well as briefly justify their opinions or explain their plans

Here you will also find descriptors on how to function in social life: being able to carry out simple transactions in stores, post offices or banks; knowing how to get simple travel information; using public transport (buses, trains and cabs); asking for basic information, asking and explaining how to get to a place and buys tickets; ordering and providing everyday goods and services.

TECH helps students to obtain their qualification with an intensive training program that is based 100% on the CEFR"

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B1 (According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ◆ Possess a large enough linguistic repertoire to get by and an adequate vocabulary to express themselves, albeit hesitantly and with circumlocutions, on topics such as their family, hobbies and interests, work, travel and current

Interaction

- ◆ Initiate, maintain and end simple face-to-face conversations on everyday topics of personal interest
- ◆ Repeat part of what someone has said to confirm mutual understanding

Correction

- ◆ Use with reasonable accuracy a repertoire of commonly used formulas and structures associated with predictable situations

Coherence

- ◆ Link a series of short, distinct and simple elements to enable a linear sequence of related ideas

Fluency

- ◆ Continue to speak in a comprehensible manner, although pauses for grammatical, lexical planning and correction are evident, especially during long periods of free speech

Download and practice vocabulary: more than 500 pages of lexical cards and glossaries.

- Final review test: you will work through more than 1,400 assessment questions to thoroughly prepare for your level certification
- Pre-test activities: in order to consolidate the concepts developed throughout the syllabus by reiterating them

Skills-based Practice

If the Common Framework of Reference for Languages establishes the consolidation of a language through the acquisition of skills, and bases its official tests on these skills, why don't most of the online preparation courses for level certificates according to skills? At TECH, you will work on all the skills established by the Common Framework of Reference for Languages in each of the units through an innovative method that is 100% adapted to European guidelines. In this training program we work according to skills, with more than 500 different activities in order to prepare you to obtain your official Italian B1 certificate.

Presentation Videos and Objectives

The only training program in which you will find detailed objectives and skills per unit in video format explained by a native teacher.

Summary Videos of Each Unit

At the end of each unit, you will find a video summary in which a native teacher will reiterate and emphasize the most important points.

Video Task

Test what you know in a different way, solve our video-task!

Simulated Learning Scenarios

At TECH, we believe in the importance of linguistic immersion to lay the foundations of a language as well as in storytelling to favor identification and first-person learning. Therefore, we present you with real and everyday situations with people like you who will face a new language and have to overcome all different kinds of problems. In this training program you will find more than 250 everyday situations, stories and video dialogues recorded by experts and native speakers.

Specific Virtual Classes for CEFR B1

Are you ready for the exam? Our native teachers will explain to you all the tips and tricks you can use to pass the course with total guarantee of success, as well as the subjects you need to prepare better, the exercises that appear most frequently, mistakes to avoid, resources that can help you in certain situations, etc. All this prepared on video for you to consult when and as you wish.

Our Methodology

The TECH program is a B1 Italian Language Course based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, we use a method in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the CEFR, thoroughly preparing them to pass the test.

“

In no other course will you find pre-test knowledge activation questions, lesson tests, grammar tests, a final test and specific practice of CEFR skills in each unit"

The TECH Technological University method

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's B1 Italian Language Course offers you a revolutionary method to comprehensively prepare for the level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the test official using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

Our B1 CEFR preparation course is the only one on the market licensed to use the Relearning method, which enhances learning by optimizing the effort/result ratio.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Relearning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed, in 2015, to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives, etc.) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

Relearning Methodology

In TECH's B1 Italian Language Course, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (we learn-unlearn (forget) and relearn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

With this methodology we have trained more than 35,000 university graduates with unprecedented success, in fields as diverse as Biochemistry, Genetics, Surgery, International Law, Management Skills or Financial Markets and Instruments. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 42 years.

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, receive answers to your questions or get advice on how to study.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called "Neurocognitive context-dependent learning", the different elements of our intensive Italian B1 preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take their official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

Study wherever and however you want: more than 500 downloadable and printable grammar and lexical worksheets and glossaries.

Course Objectives

This B1 Italian Language Course is designed to cover all the needs and abilities required by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). As a result, the student will obtain their certification in a satisfactory manner and will be able to continue their academic or professional career in countries where this language is spoken.

Practice the skills and abilities required by the B1 CEFR with guarantees: more than 350 different practice exercises.

You will have an array of practical exercises at your disposal to practice your oral, written and comprehension skills in Italian”

General Objectives

01

Use the language being learned as a means of communication and personal expression, both in the classroom and in a wide range of face-to-face and virtual situations and on both concrete and abstract topics, including cultural ones

02

Understand, interact and express themselves in these situations, orally and in writing, in an appropriate, reasonably flexible, precise and correct manner

03

Describe the sociocultural aspects related to usual situations, as well as those related to one's own environment and use the appropriate social formulas, gestures, register and treatment in these situations

04

Internalize the appropriate and necessary linguistic resources for the planned communicative activities, through functional and formal practice

05

Encourage and diversify the use of strategies that streamline communication and facilitate learning

06

Manage tools to evaluate and improve one's own learning and use of the language

Specific Objectives

Oral Comprehension

- ◆ Understand concrete everyday or work-related information, and identify both the general message and specific details as long as the speech is clearly articulated and with a normal accent
- ◆ Understand the main ideas of clear, standard speech on everyday topics related to work, school or leisure time, including short narratives
- ◆ Generally follow the main ideas of a long discussion going on around them, provided that the discourse is clearly articulated at a standard language level
- ◆ Understand, in general terms, simple and short speeches on everyday topics provided they are delivered with standard and clear pronunciation
- ◆ Understand a lecture or talk that deals with their area of expertise, provided that the subject matter is familiar and the presentation is simple and clearly structured
- ◆ Understand simple technical information, such as operating instructions for frequently used appliances, as well as follow detailed instructions
- ◆ Understand the main ideas of radio news and other simpler recorded material dealing with everyday topics delivered relatively slowly and clearly
- ◆ Understand the information content of most recorded or broadcast material related to topics of personal interest with clear standard pronunciation

Reading Comprehension

- ◆ Read simple factual texts on topics related to their field of expertise with a satisfactory level of comprehension
- ◆ Understand the description of facts, feelings and wishes in personal letters well enough to correspond regularly with a foreign friend
- ◆ Find and understand relevant information in everyday written material, such as letters, catalogs, and short official documents
- ◆ Consult long texts in order to find the desired information, and to know how to gather information from different parts of a text or from different texts in order to perform a specific task
- ◆ Recognize significant ideas from simple newspaper articles that deal with everyday issues
- ◆ Identify the main conclusions in clearly argumentative texts. Recognize the line of argument in the treatment of the issue presented, though not necessarily in full detail
- ◆ Understand simple, clearly written instructions related to an appliance
- ◆ Understand many films where visuals and action drive much of the storyline and are articulated clearly and with a simple level of language
- ◆ Capture the main ideas of television programs dealing with everyday topics when they are articulated relatively slowly and clearly

Written Expression

- ◆ Write simple, cohesive texts on a range of everyday topics within their field of interest, linking a series of different short items in a linear sequence
- ◆ Write simple and detailed descriptions of a range of everyday topics within their specialty
- ◆ Write accounts of experiences describing feelings and reactions in simple, structured texts
- ◆ Write a description of a specific event, a recent trip, real or imagined, and narrate a story
- ◆ Write very brief reports in conventional format with information about common events and the reasons for certain actions
- ◆ Write short and simple essays on topics of interest. Can summarize, communicate and offer their opinion with a certain degree of confidence on concrete facts related to everyday matters, whether usual or not, in their field of expertise

Oral Expression

- ◆ Carry out, with a reasonable degree of fluency, a simple description of a variety of topics that are of interest to them, presenting them as a linear sequence of elements
- ◆ Give simple descriptions on a variety of common topics within your specialty
- ◆ Give simple narratives or descriptions with a reasonable degree of fluency following a linear sequence of elements

- ◆ Make detailed accounts of experiences describing feelings and reactions
- ◆ Report the details of unpredictable events, such as, for example, an accident
- ◆ Relate book or movie plots and describe your reactions to them
- ◆ Describe dreams, hopes and ambitions
- ◆ Describe real or imagined events. Tell stories
- ◆ Provide brief rationales and explanations for opinions, plans and actions
- ◆ Develop arguments well enough so that they can be understood without difficulty most of the time
- ◆ Make short rehearsed statements on a relevant topic within their specialty, which are clearly intelligible despite being accompanied by an unmistakably foreign accent and intonation
- ◆ Deliver a brief, prepared presentation on a topic within their specialty, with sufficient clarity to be followed without difficulty most of the time and whose main ideas are explained with reasonable accuracy. Can also answer supplemental questions, but may have to ask for repetition if spoken quickly

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- Broaden and diversify the knowledge of sociocultural aspects related to situations, even those that are less usual and those of one's own professional field; to successfully adapt their behavior, reactions and linguistic performance to different situations
- Use in a flexible way the language and formulas of the exchanges and texts that are handled, as well as the usual forms of treatment and expressions of courtesy, within a wide standard register of formality and informality, with degrees of distance or closeness
- Use expressions that give subtle disagreement or negative evaluations if the situation so requires
- Understand behaviors and values different from one's own that underlie common sociocultural traits, and recognize aspects and expressions that are offensive or taboo in the other culture

Linguistic Competence

- Broaden and diversify the knowledge of sociocultural aspects related to situations, even those that are less usual and those of one's own professional field; to successfully adapt their behavior, reactions and linguistic performance to different situations
- Use in a flexible way the language and formulas of the exchanges and texts that are handled, as well as the usual forms of treatment and expressions of courtesy, within a wide standard register of formality and informality, with degrees of distance or closeness
- Use expressions that nuance disagreement or negative evaluations if the situation so requires
- Understand behaviors and values different from one's own that underlie common sociocultural traits and recognize aspects and expressions that are offensive or taboo in the other culture

“To consolidate all these skills, you will have access to more than 500 lexical, vocabulary and sociocultural activities”

Did you know?

Communicative competence is not merely limited to the knowledge and ability to use the linguistic code, but has other broader dimensions, which place it in direct relation with other competences such as information processing and digital competence, learning to learn, social and civic competence, or cultural and artistic competence.

This implies a cultural immersion that is only possible to recreate in the online format through simulated scenarios, storytelling, videos and real situations.

Only TECH offers their students videos with the 250 specific situations required to master the CEFR B1.

Course Structure and Content

This Language Course has been designed and structured by a group of native teachers of the language. All contents follow the criteria established in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, allowing students to improve their skills in order to pass the Italian B1 level exam. Consequently, at the end of the course, students will be able to communicate effectively with native speakers in different social and professional environments.

"Fashion design has been my passion since I was very young. That's why, when I graduated from university, I wanted to continue my studies in Italy, the birthplace of the best designers and fashion houses in the world. But this was only going to be possible if I improved my Italian. With this TECH Language Course I managed to prepare myself to pass the B1 exam and send my application to the Italian university where I want to study"

Camila Álvarez

A fashion design student from Spain.

"Learning Italian was not complicated at all with this TECH Language Course. Each class and exercise I did gave me a better understanding of the language, so I was able to pass the B1 Level exam with an excellent grade. I can now have a much better conversation with the Italian suppliers who provide me with the material to make my products"

Alberto Verdú

A student from Mexico

The Professional Benefits of Italian

Italian is a beautiful and romantic language, the language of ancient medieval thinkers, historical writers, and possesses a unique musicality and conceptual richness in a wide variety of fields. It is the language of Dante, Petrarch and Boccaccio, three great Italian writers, but it is also the language of art, history, science, gastronomy and fashion.

As the birthplace of Latinity, Italy played a decisive role in the diffusion of Latin and the culture of the Roman Empire in the rest of Europe, both in Ancient times and in the ages that followed. Similarly, after the affirmation of the Neo-Latin languages and the constitution of modern linguistic Europe, Italian has had, at times, moments of great importance in the international linguistic context.

Approximately 70 million people worldwide speak Italian (60 million in Italy and around 10 million in the rest of the world). It is the official language in Italy, Switzerland, San Marino and Vatican City. It is spoken, at least in part, in eleven countries, to which must be added some twenty countries with a large Italian community, such as Argentina, Germany, Australia and the USA.

Italian is one of the official languages of the European Union, therefore speaking Italian will open the doors to many international organizations and also the possibility of working in many of the large Italian companies with international presence. The Italian economy is principally based in three sectors, tourism, the automotive industry and fashion.

For all these reasons, Italian is found amongst the ten most useful languages in the world and its considered necessary to succeed in the 21st Century”

Assessment and Certification

The main evaluation objective of TECH's assessment is that students consolidate what they have learned and are aware of their progress. That is why, after completing each block, the student is shown a results report that visually indicates the skills that they should reinforce in the online classes.

TECH's intensive B1 Language Course is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate”

Only TECH will award students, upon successful completion of the course, a university certificate"

Italian B1 training course evaluation tests

The assimilation of the contents is constantly and progressively evaluated. To do so, the student must pass an automatically corrected evaluation test at the end of each module and a final test that covers all the contents of the level.

Its main objective is for the student to consolidate what they have learned and to be aware of their progress, for this reason, after the evaluation test is completed, the student is shown a report of the results.

Training course evaluation criteria

- Communicative effectiveness: comprehensibility, fulfillment of expected functions, accuracy, sociolinguistic appropriateness
- Interactive and speaking skills: responsiveness and cooperation, coherence of ideas, organization, relevant and sufficient development
- Use of language: linguistic resources, formal elements of cohesion and fluency
- Formal correction: grammar, discourse cohesion, vocabulary and pronunciation

If you pass our course, you will obtain an B1 Italian language qualification from TECH.

The certificate, which indicates successful completion of the course, will state the language studied and the level passed, according to the Common European Framework of Reference from Languages (CEFR).

The certificate issued by TECH Technological University only provides "pass" or "fail" as grading options, and does not express a numerical grade. Before receiving the certificate, you will be emailed a form to verify your data.

The CEFR B1 Italian Language Course an intensive program lasting a maximum of 4 months.

Certification

At the end of the course the student will receive a certificate of recognition that confirms that they are prepared to obtain official certification for this level.
