01 Welcome

German is a language shared by several countries of the European Union, therefore, studying this language at an expert level opens up new professional opportunities for employers and students. Knowing this reality, TECH has assembled a team of native teachers to develop a program that meets the requirements of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Therefore, the main objective of this program is to help the student prepare for and pass the Level C1 certification exam in German. Through various practical exercises and a completely online program, the student will have the total freedom to learn at their own pace.

Introduction

Learning German has become the boost that many professionals and students have needed to develop their careers. For this reason, TECH, following the criteria established in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, has developed this University Course, allowing students of different nationalities to learn from German-speaking teachers and to certify themselves by successfully taking the corresponding placement exam.

Several practical exercises and didactic videos reinforce the student's linguistic and grammatical skills. In addition, as it is taught in a completely online mode, the student will not have to abandon their daily activities, being the one who decides where and when to complete a module.

This University Course is the opportunity you were waiting for to continue advancing in your professional career, being able to opt for new positions in German-speaking countries.

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society. Nowadays, students must have an official certificate that accredits and recognizes their proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

tech 10 | Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certification?

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards diplomas that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH, we offer you the only intensive Language Course to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

Learn German and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate gives you a diploma for life.

All of the topics are based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages so you are guaranteed of preparing yourself with the best contents”

What Is Level C1?

Level C1 is part of the Proficient User Level, which is further divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Proficient User Levels (C1 and C2).

Level C1 is called Effective Operational Proficiency. What seems to characterize this level is good access to a broad linguistic repertoire. This allows for fluent and spontaneous communication, as illustrated in the following examples: they express themselves fluently and spontaneously, almost effortlessly; they have a good command of an extensive lexical repertoire that allows them to overcome their deficiencies easily with circumlocutions; they hardly noticeably search for expressions or avoidance strategies; only a conceptually difficult topic can hinder the natural fluency of their speech. The discourse skills that characterize the previous band are still evident at Level C1, with an emphasis on greater fluency; for example: is able to select, from a fluid repertoire of discourse functions, the most appropriate phrase with which to begin comments in order to take the floor or to gain time and hold it while thinking; produces clear, fluent and well-structured speech; and has control of organizational structures, connectors and cohesive mechanisms.

C<sub>1</sub>

Our Methodology

The TECH program is a C1 German Language Course based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, we use a method in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the CEFR, thoroughly preparing them to pass the test.

In no other course will you find pre-test knowledge activation questions, lesson tests, grammar tests, a final test and specific practice of CEFR skills in each unit”

The TECH Technological University method

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

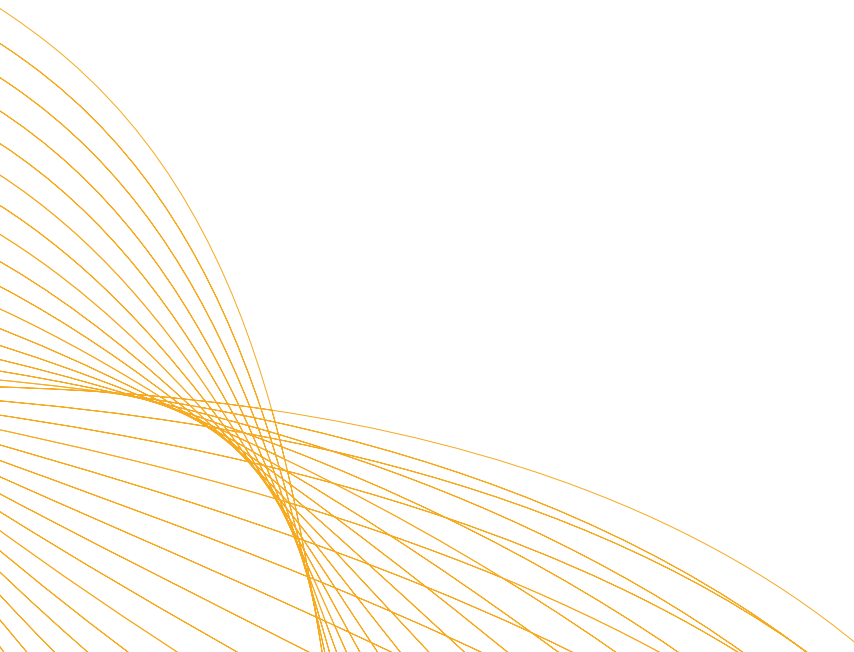

TECH's C1 German Language Course offers students a revolutionary method to comprehensively prepare for the level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test. These simulations are developed using state-of-the-art software to facilitate immersive learning.

... All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning....

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

TECH offers you the highest quality and quantity in the academic landscape, with hundreds of exercises and resources for you to keep improving your level step by step.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Relearning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed in 2015 to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives, etc.) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

Relearning Methodology

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

In TECH's C1 German Language Course, learning is not a linear process, but rather a spiral (we learn– unlearn (forget) and re-learn). Therefore, we combine each of these elements concentrically.

With this methodology we have trained more than 35,000 university graduates with unprecedented success, in fields as diverse as Biochemistry, Genetics, Surgery, International Law, Management Skills or Financial Markets and Instruments. All this in a highly demanding environment, where the students have a strong socio-economic profile and an average age of 42 years.

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, receive answers to your questions or get advice on how to study.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. This way, and in what is called Neurocognitive Context-Dependent Learning the different elements of our C1 German Language Course are connected with the context in which the participant will take their university exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

In recent years many German tourists visit Mexico City and my job, as their guide, is to provide them with a complete tour according to their expectations. Therefore, speaking to them in English was often confusing for them and they did not enjoy the visit. So, I decided to improve my level of German in order to provide a quality service. With TECH I was able to achieve this goal and in just over a year I have reached the C1 certification.

The Professional Benefits of German

German is the ninth most spoken language in the world. It is spoken in countries such as: Switzerland, Austria, Luxembourg and Belgium. And also in other parts of the world in small communities.

There is no doubt that the main reason to learn German is for work. Austria has the lowest unemployment rate of the Eurozone countries; Switzerland is one of the richest countries with the best working conditions; the engine of Europe, Germany, offers great job opportunities to anyone who wants to work, but a good command of German is a prerequisite to work in these countries. Many have tried their luck and emigrated from their home countries in search of work, but doing it without knowing German is not particularly easy.

Learning German may be just what you need to develop your career. Knowing German will also make it easier to create or maintain working relationships with German-speaking associates in your country. It will undoubtedly help to strengthen relationships and close business deals. It is also worth bearing in mind that German is the native language of one of the world's major exporting countries, and having a good command of this language allows you to perform better in business and instill greater confidence in working relationships.

Additionally, German is the second most important language for the sciences and Germany is the third most important country for its contribution to research and development. Germany awards a large number of research grants to foreign scientists and almost 20% of the world's books are written in German.
