01 Welcome

For more demanding areas of work and environments, where Russian speakers are normally dealt with, the minimum level required for many offers of employment is B2 Russian. This is because it is precisely this certification that guarantees adequate language development at an upper intermediate level.

This TECH university certificate responds to the need of professionals and people interested in improving their language skills and certifying their validity with a language test that adheres to the main guidelines of the CEFR. Thanks to the thoroughness of the evaluation methodology, the student's reading, oral and written comprehension is ensured at an upper intermediate level.

The B2 university certificate in Russian will open the door to a much more prosperous working future, which you will access thanks to the distinctive quality of your curriculum"

Introduction

By validating the B2 level of Russian, the student is demonstrating their already high level of proficiency in the language, with high intermediate reading, writing and listening comprehension. This is a competitive advantage, especially in international environments, where this language level is necessary.

This university certificate does not require renewal, as it has an unlimited duration, and serves the student to stand out among other candidates and earn better job offers and positions.

Add to your language expertise, your skills and abilities in Russian-speaking environments, with a distinguished university certificate developed on the basis of the CEFR.

TECH gives you the flexibility and freedom you need to certify your language level, and you can even choose the time you want to take the exam.

It is proven that learning languages increases your intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks”

José Antonio Marina.
Philosopher, writer, and teacher.

Flexible and Tailored

No Stress

Are you nervous about waiting in long lines to register for the exam and take the different tests? You will be able to register online and take your test with an examiner just for you, with no external pressure.

No Waiting

Receive your certificate in record time and in digital format so you can always carry it with you.

02

Why Is it Important to Obtain B2 Certification?

In more specialized fields of work, such as health, education or technology, it is necessary to have a good proficiency and fluency in the language. For this, the minimum certification required is usually B2, so in work environments where the dominant language is Russian, it is essential to have a qualification to support the resume.

Although the reason for obtaining this university certificate is purely administrative, obtaining a B2 certification in Russian is the decisive proof that you have a good proficiency in the spoken and written language, being the perfect incentive to continue the linguistic career towards the C1.

You will demonstrate that you are fluent in specialized fields thanks to this B2 Russian university certificate"

TECH Technological University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes a set of criteria for assessing a learner's level in a given language. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid.

TECH offers the opportunity to take a unique test, in which the student will obtain a university level qualification based entirely on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

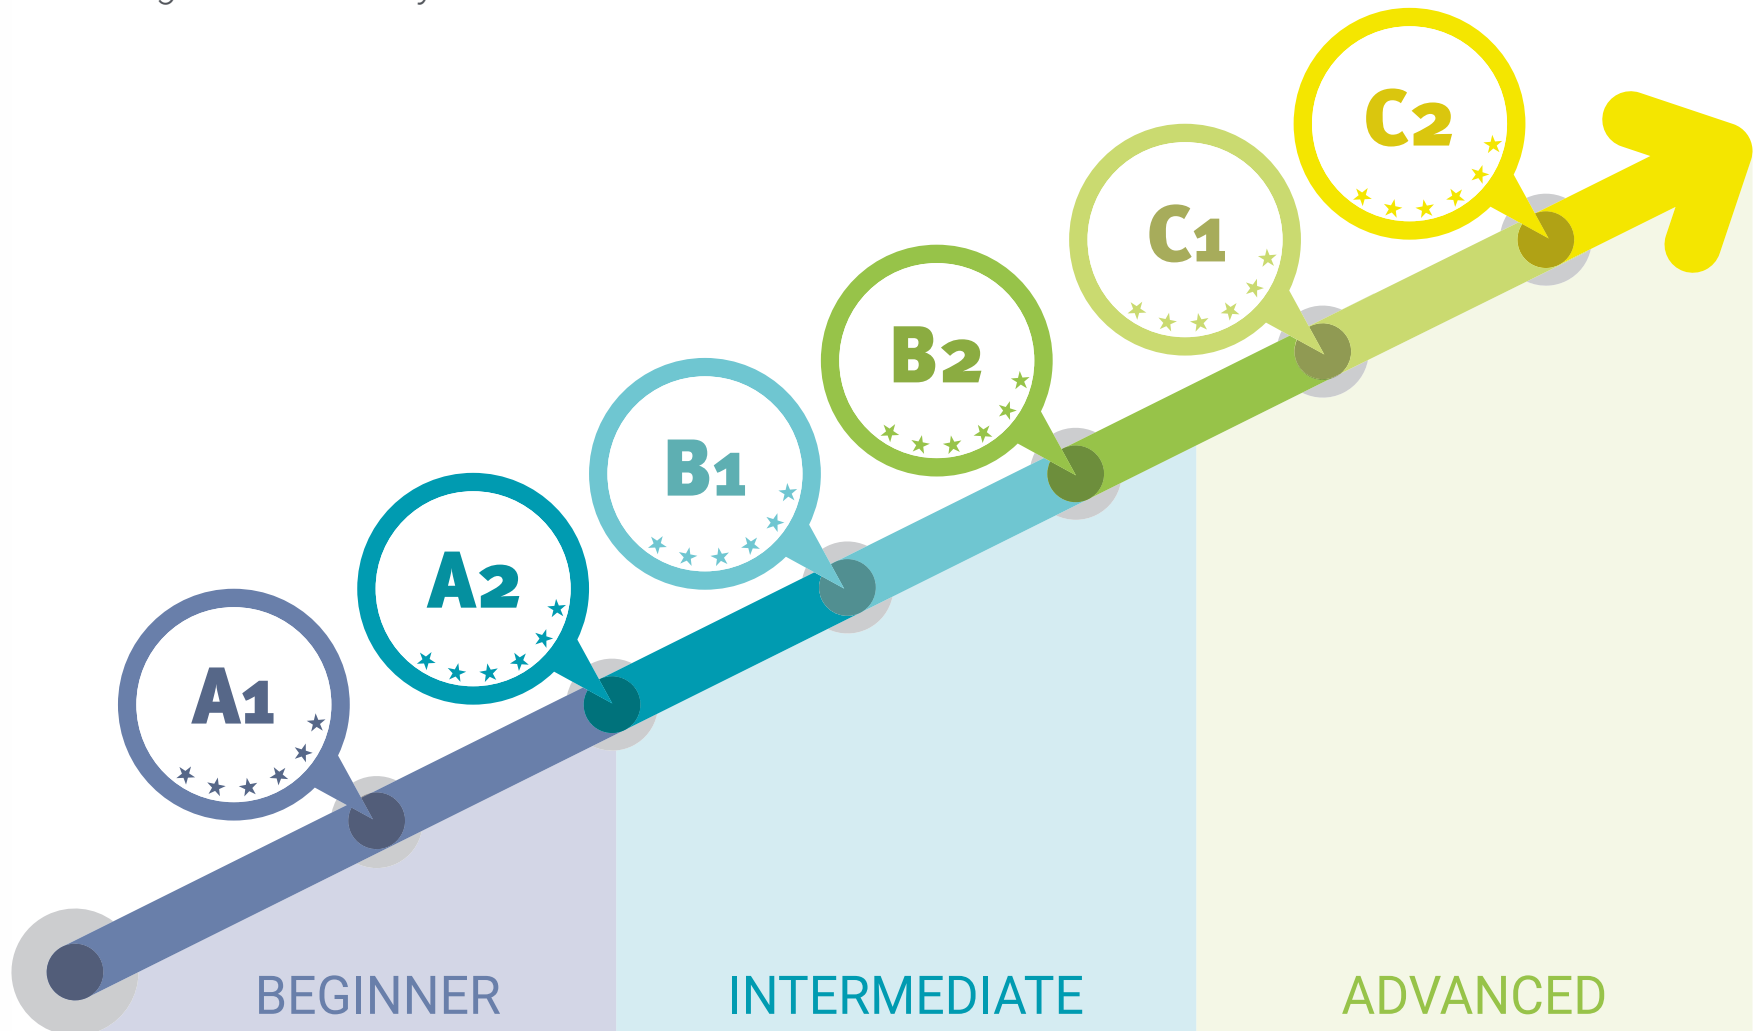

You will have a clear advantage over other candidates thanks to this university qualification that certifies your B2 level in Russian.

You will be able to take on more important roles and positions of greater responsibility in international or Russian-speaking environments.

Thanks to TECH's effort in adapting this exam to the CEFR, you will have an internationally recognised university certificate”

03

Methodology and Criteria for Exam Evaluation

The exhaustive and complete methodology used by TECH for this exam, created according to the requirements of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, guarantees its quality compared to other qualifications.

“

TECH guarantees you a transversal exam in which you will demonstrate your reading, writing and oral comprehension skills”

What are the B2 Level Skills?

The B2 level accreditation test corresponds to the fourth level of the six levels that make up the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. At this level, the user is predisposed to an advanced proficiency in the language, being able to develop numerous linguistic characteristics:

01

Understand the main ideas in complex texts which deal with both concrete and abstract topics, even if they are of a technical nature, as long as they are within their field of expertise

02

Interact with native speakers with a sufficient degree of fluency and naturalness, so that communication is effortless for the interlocutors

“

This is the best time to invest in your future and choose a language that will open doors to many countries and professional environments”

03

Produce clear and detailed texts on a range of diverse topics, as well as defend your point of view on general topics, indicating the pros and cons or different options

04

Describe experiences, events, desires and aspirations, as well as briefly justify their opinions or explain their plans

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B2 (According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ♦ Provide clear descriptions
- ♦ Express points of view on general topics without obvious pauses to search for a word, using complex sentences to achieve it

Correction

- ♦ Demonstrate relatively high grammatical accuracy
- ♦ Not making mistakes that lead to misunderstanding
- ♦ Correct almost all the incorrectnesses

Fluency

- ♦ Produce fragments of a speech with a fairly uniform rhythm, although there could be pauses while thinking of certain structures or expressions
- ♦ Use few long pauses during the speech

Interaction

- ♦ Start a conversation, take their turn to speak at the appropriate moment and finish a conversation when necessary, although it may not always be done gracefully
- ♦ Participate in debates on day to day topics, demonstrate understanding, invite others to participate, etc.

Coherence

- ♦ Use a limited number of cohesion mechanisms to turn sentences into a clear and coherent speech, although there may be some "nervousness" if the speech is long

01

Objectives

Listening comprehension objectives

The candidate is able to:

- ◆ Understand the main ideas of a linguistically complex discourse, dealing with both concrete and abstract topics delivered at a standard language level, including technical discussions within their field of specialization
- ◆ Understand long speeches and complex lines of argument as long as the topic is reasonably familiar and the development of the discourse is facilitated by explicit markers
- ◆ Understand any type of speech, both face-to-face conversations and broadcast speeches, on topics, usual or not, of personal, social, academic or professional life. Only excessive background noise, inadequate structuring of speech or idiomatic use of language affect their ability to understand
- ◆ Pick up with some effort much of what is being said around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in a discussion with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- ◆ Follow lively conversations between native speakers
- ◆ Understand the main ideas of linguistically complex lectures, talks and reports, and other forms of academic and professional presentation

- Understand statements and messages on concrete and abstract topics, in standard language and at a normal pace
- Understand most radio documentaries and other recorded or rebroadcast material spoken in standard language, and identify the speaker's mood and tone
- Understand recordings in standard language that may be encountered in social, professional or academic life, and identify the speaker's points of view and attitudes, as well as the content of the information

02

Reading comprehension objectives

The candidate is able to:

- Read with a high degree of independence, adapt reading style and speed to different texts and purposes, and use appropriate reference sources selectively. Have a large active reading vocabulary, but may have some difficulty with infrequent idioms
- Read correspondence related to their field of expertise and easily grasp the essential meaning
- Quickly search through long and complex texts to locate relevant details. Quickly identify the content and significance of news stories, articles and reports on a wide range of professional topics and decide whether further analysis is appropriate

- ♦ Understand articles and reports related to current problems in which the authors express specific viewpoints
- ♦ Obtain information, ideas and opinions from highly specialized sources within your field of interest. Understand specialized articles that are not in their area of expertise assuming they can use a dictionary from time to time to confirm their interpretation of the terminology
- ♦ Understand lengthy and complex instructions that are within their expertise, including details about conditions and warnings as long as they can re-read difficult sections
- ♦ Understand most television news and current affairs programs including documentaries, live interviews, debates, theatrical plays and most standard-language films

- ♦ Speak fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, professional or leisure topics, clearly marking the relationship between ideas. Communicate spontaneously and have good grammatical control without showing many signs of having to restrict what to say and adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances
- ♦ Understand in detail what is said in standard language, even in an environment with background noise
- ♦ Approach in a clearly participatory manner extensive conversations on most general topics, even in a noisy environment
- ♦ Hold conversations with native speakers, without unintentionally amusing or annoying them, and without demanding different behavior from them than you would with a native speaker.
- ♦ Convey a certain emotion and highlight the personal importance of facts and experiences
- ♦ Follow the rhythm of lively discussions between native speakers. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines of argument convincingly and respond to them
- ♦ Take an active part in informal discussions that occur in everyday situations by making comments, clearly expressing their points of view, evaluating alternative proposals, making hypotheses and responding to them

03

Speaking objectives

The candidate is able to:

- ♦ Participate in conversations with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that enables regular interaction with native speakers without strain for either party. Emphasize the personal importance of certain facts and experiences, express and defend points of view with clarity, providing adequate explanations and arguments

- With some effort, pick up much of what is said in discussions going on around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in discussions with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- Express and uphold their opinions in discussions by providing appropriate explanations, arguments, and comments
- Understand, with complete certainty, detailed instructions. Contribute to the progress of the work by inviting others to participate, speak up, etc.
- Outline an issue or problem clearly, speculating on the causes or consequences and comparing the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches
- Negotiate the resolution of conflicts, such as claiming an unfair traffic fine, claiming financial responsibility for damages caused in an apartment or for fault in an accident
- Develop their case for damages, using persuasive language to claim compensation, and clearly establish the limits of any concession they are willing to make
- Explain a problem that has arisen and make it clear that the service provider or customer must make concessions
- Understand and exchange complex information and advice on all matters related to their profession. Communicate detailed information with complete certainty

04

Writing objectives

The candidate is able to:

- Express news and points of view effectively when writing and establish a relationship with other people's points of view
 - Write letters that convey some emotion and highlight the personal significance of events and experiences; comment on the news and views of the person you are writing to

Features of the B2 Russian Exam

1 What does the TECH Technological University test assess?

- ♦ The contents of the exams and the evaluation criteria will be those corresponding to the CEFR descriptors
- ♦ No published assignments or test materials will be used
- ♦ The four skills (oral and written expression, oral and written comprehension) will be evaluated together or separately. Use of language tasks may also be included
- ♦ All test tasks, with the possible exception of the use of language tasks, will be close to real-world tasks and the text materials will be authentic, as far as possible and according to the level tested

2 How long does the test last?

- ♦ The exams, whatever the level, shall not be less than 142 minutes or more than 200 minutes long

3 How is the test carried out?

- The oral and written comprehension tests, as well as the written expression test, are conducted via computer
- The written and oral expression tests, whenever possible, will be evaluated by two examiners according to the established procedures
- The oral expression test will consist of an interview, the questions of which will meet the objectives and evaluation parameters established by TECH

Candidates must obtain at least a 6 on each part of the exam in order to obtain a PASS grade.

If you do not pass all areas, you will not get your certificate, but we will give you a detailed report of your skills in each area and competency.

4 What are the assessment criteria?

With regard to grades, TECH, following the recommendations, uses the following criteria:

Candidates who obtain at least 60% in each of the 4 parts of the exam will pass the exam. Based on the overall score, a grade will be awarded that will appear on the certificate issued by TECH, according to the following scale:

In the event that a candidate does not pass any of the 4 parts of the test, they must retake the entire exam.

Structure, duration and weighting of the 4 parts of the examination

Below is a table with the sections, characteristics and duration of the different parts of the test.

Duration	Sections		Instructions
	Skill	Time
B2 142-200 minutes	Speaking	Monologue and directed questions	12-15 minutes
	Listening comprehension	Short audios which may be short dialogues or monologues related to topics of the level	35-45 minutes
	Writing	Various written expression activities; may include use of language activities	50-70 minutes
	Reading comprehension	Various reading comprehension activities	45-70 minutes
			Instructions in mother tongue

Structure of the Level B2 Russian exam

It consists of 4 parts:

Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing

The total duration of the exam is 142 to 200 minutes, with the first three parts taking place one after the other (1st Listening, 2nd Writing, 3rd Reading). There will be a minimum of 20 minutes of rest between the first three parts and the 4th part (Speaking), which can be done on the same day, or on a different day, with a maximum limit of 7 days after the other block has been completed.

Listening (Duration 35-45 minutes)

Listening consists of 4 exercises, each of which is based on an audio recording that can be a monologue or a conversation between 2 or more people. Exercises include: multiple response, sentence completion, completion of charts, graphs or diagrams, and short answer in one or two sentences. In this part of the exam, it should be noted that accents from any part of the world can be heard, which adds a substantial degree of difficulty.

Reading (Duration: 45-70 minutes)

It consists of 40 questions grouped in 3 sections. Each text is 1.300 and 2.100 words long and several questions are asked about it. The texts are excerpts from books, research articles, newspapers and scientific journals. The type of questions, as in the oral part, is highly varied: multiple answers, completing tables, graphs or diagrams, locating information in the text, indicating the writer's opinion, etc.

Writing (Duration: 50-70 minutes)

This part consists of two exercises, an essay between 125 and 250 words and another between 300 and 450 words. As a first draft a small report is usually requested on a piece of information provided to the examinee in any format (text, graph, table or diagram).

Regarding the 300-450 word essay, a piece of information is usually presented very briefly (a couple of lines), followed by a statement about it, and then the candidate is asked to explain whether they agree or disagree with the statement, briefly stating the necessary arguments. The second exercise accounts for two thirds of the "Writing" grade and the first exercise for one third.

Speaking (Duration: 12-15 minutes)

In this last part, a conversation is held with an examiner, and it is designed to be as realistic as possible. It is divided into 3 subsections. In the first, the candidate responds to personal, family and/or everyday questions. In the second, the candidate discusses a specific topic indicated by the examiner. In this case, the ability to produce a coherent and orderly discourse is valued. In the third and last one, both the examiner and the candidate have a conversation on a specific topic, where oral interaction and discussion skills are assessed. The entire speaking part is recorded for later review purposes.

“

TECH provides you with the supports to take the exam online, putting all the means at your disposal so that you can focus on taking the test”

05

Assessment and Certification

Each part of the exam accounts for 25% of the total grade. Candidates must obtain a minimum grade of 6 to pass each part of the exam.

- To obtain an overall PASS in the exam, it is necessary to pass all the tests and obtain an average of more than 6
- To obtain the overall grade of GOOD in the exam, you must pass all the tests with a grade higher than 6, and obtain an average between 7, 8 and 9
- To obtain the overall grade of EXCELLENT in the exam, you must pass all the tests with a grade higher than 6, and obtain an average between 9 and 10
- Only those persons who have obtained the qualification of PASS may request a certificate of aptitude issued by TECH Technological University

The level will be considered acquired if the final total score is greater than or equal to 60% of the total possible score. No average will be made if a minimum of 60% of the possible score is not reached in each of the evaluated skills.

Certificates will only be issued if the level has been reached.

The background features a white space with several black graduation caps (mortarboards) scattered in the upper left quadrant. In the lower left, a pair of hands is visible, wearing dark blue graduation gowns with gold-colored patterns on the sleeves. The hands are raised, with fingers spread, as if in a gesture of celebration or achievement. A series of thin, light blue lines curve across the upper half of the page, creating a sense of motion and flow.

To obtain the certificate, a score equal to or higher than 6 must be obtained in each of the 4 sections of the exam"

Take your exam online, with an expert tutor who will accompany you throughout the process. Come and certify your level!"

Certification

After successfully passing the exam, the student will receive a certificate of recognition that guarantees their preparation and proficiency at this level of the CEFR.

*Apostille Convention. In the event that the student wishes to have their paper certificate issued with an apostille, TECH EDUCATION will make the necessary arrangements to obtain it, at an additional cost.
