¡Hola!

The highest level for students studying the Spanish language is the C2 level. Obtaining this certification will help you to achieve new professional goals"

Introduction

Spanish is the second most spoken language in the United States and the third on a worldwide level. Its expansion has been driven by digital platforms and the constant development of powerhouses such as Mexico and Spain. In addition, the Hispanic public represents an attractive market for large companies, representing a net worth of 1.5 trillion dollars. As a result, there are more and more job positions which require a high level and command of the language.

For this reason, this university exam allows students to obtain their C2 level accreditation in this language. In order to achieve this, we follow the guidelines of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, an international system recognized by the most relevant companies and leading universities in the Hispanic market.

It's time to obtain the highest-level accreditation from CEFR, passing the exam wherever and whenever you wish.

This exam is taken individually and in an online format. So you can comfortably focus on successfully passing the test.

Why Is it Important to Obtain the C2 Certificate?

Possessing the level C2 Spanish certificate is essential for those professionals who are looking to take on a managerial role within Latin America or to enter the Spanish market independently. This highest language level, with CEFR recognition, is also essential to communicate fluently with more than 500 million people around the world, to carry out complex academic work, and to obtain citizenship in those countries where it is necessary to speak the language correctly.

> The CEFR level C2 is the closest to native speaker level. Upon mastering this level of the language you are saying to the world that you are capable of understanding a native-level conversation and expressing your ideas clearly, all through the Spanish language"

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH we offer you the test to obtain your level certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.
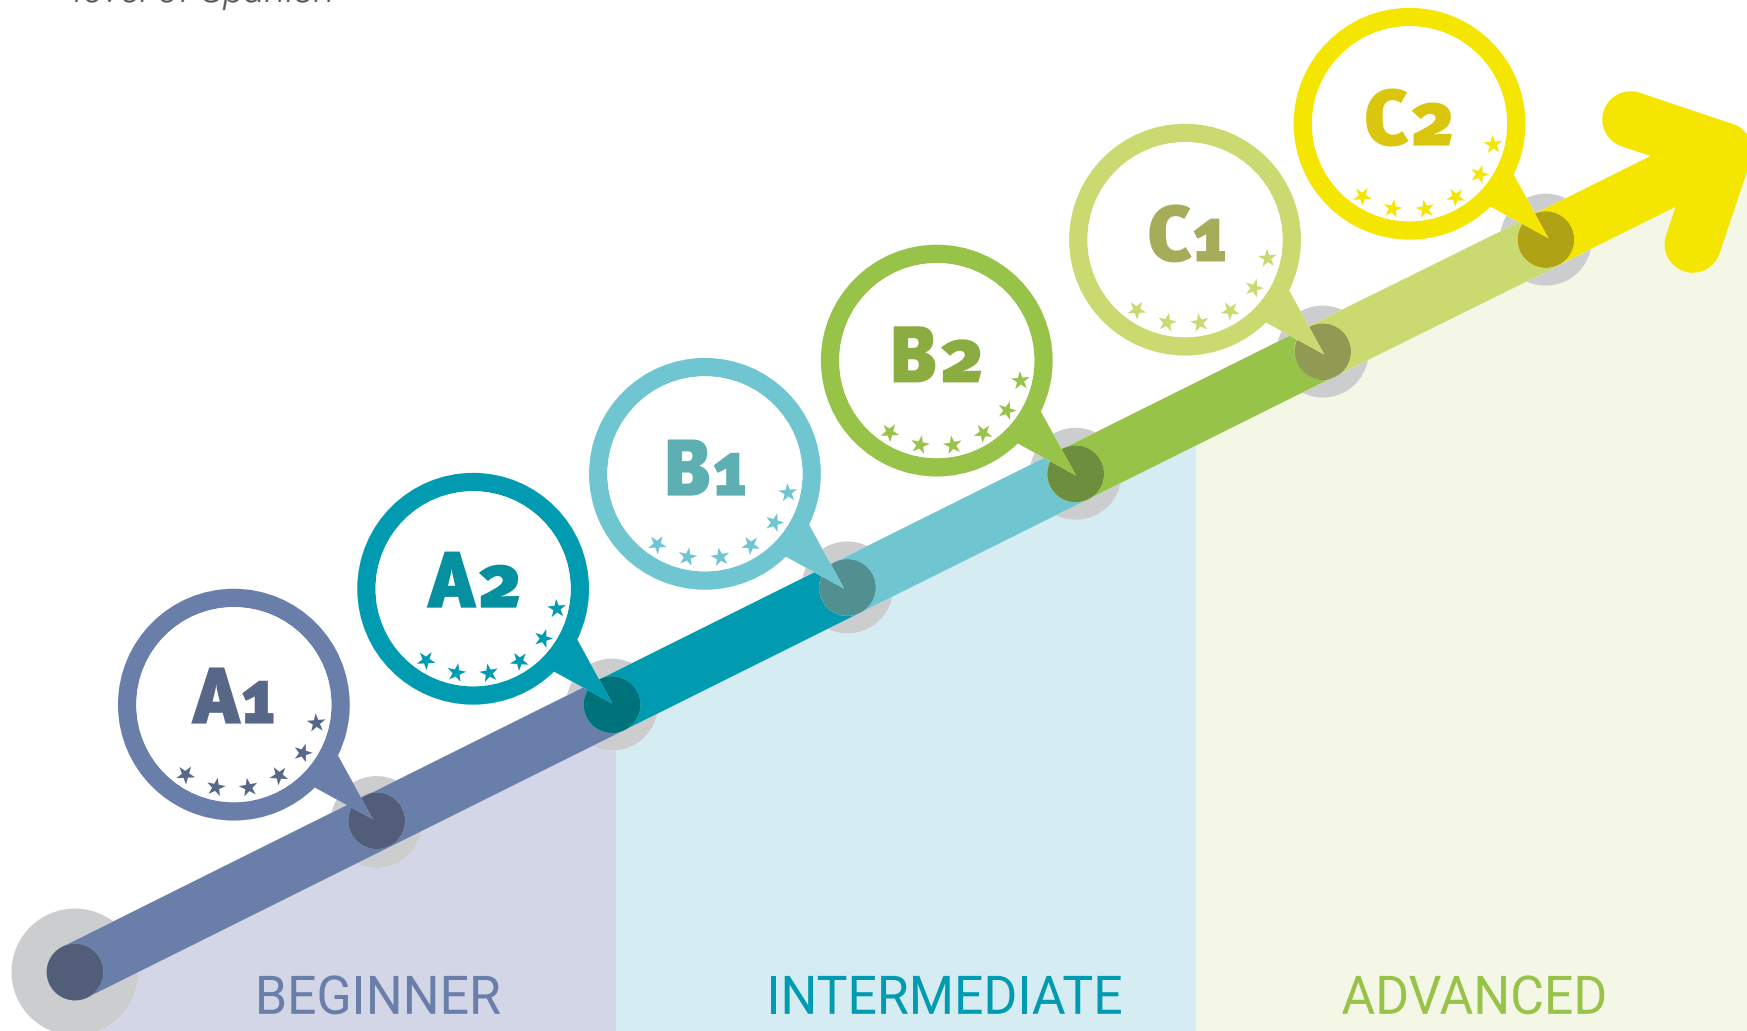

Accrediting your Spanish C2 level through CEFR will help you to go for that job you are dreaming of in Chile or Spain.

The certification endorsed by CEFR is different from others as it provides you with a certificate that never expires. Therefore, you won't have to constantly renew it to certify your level
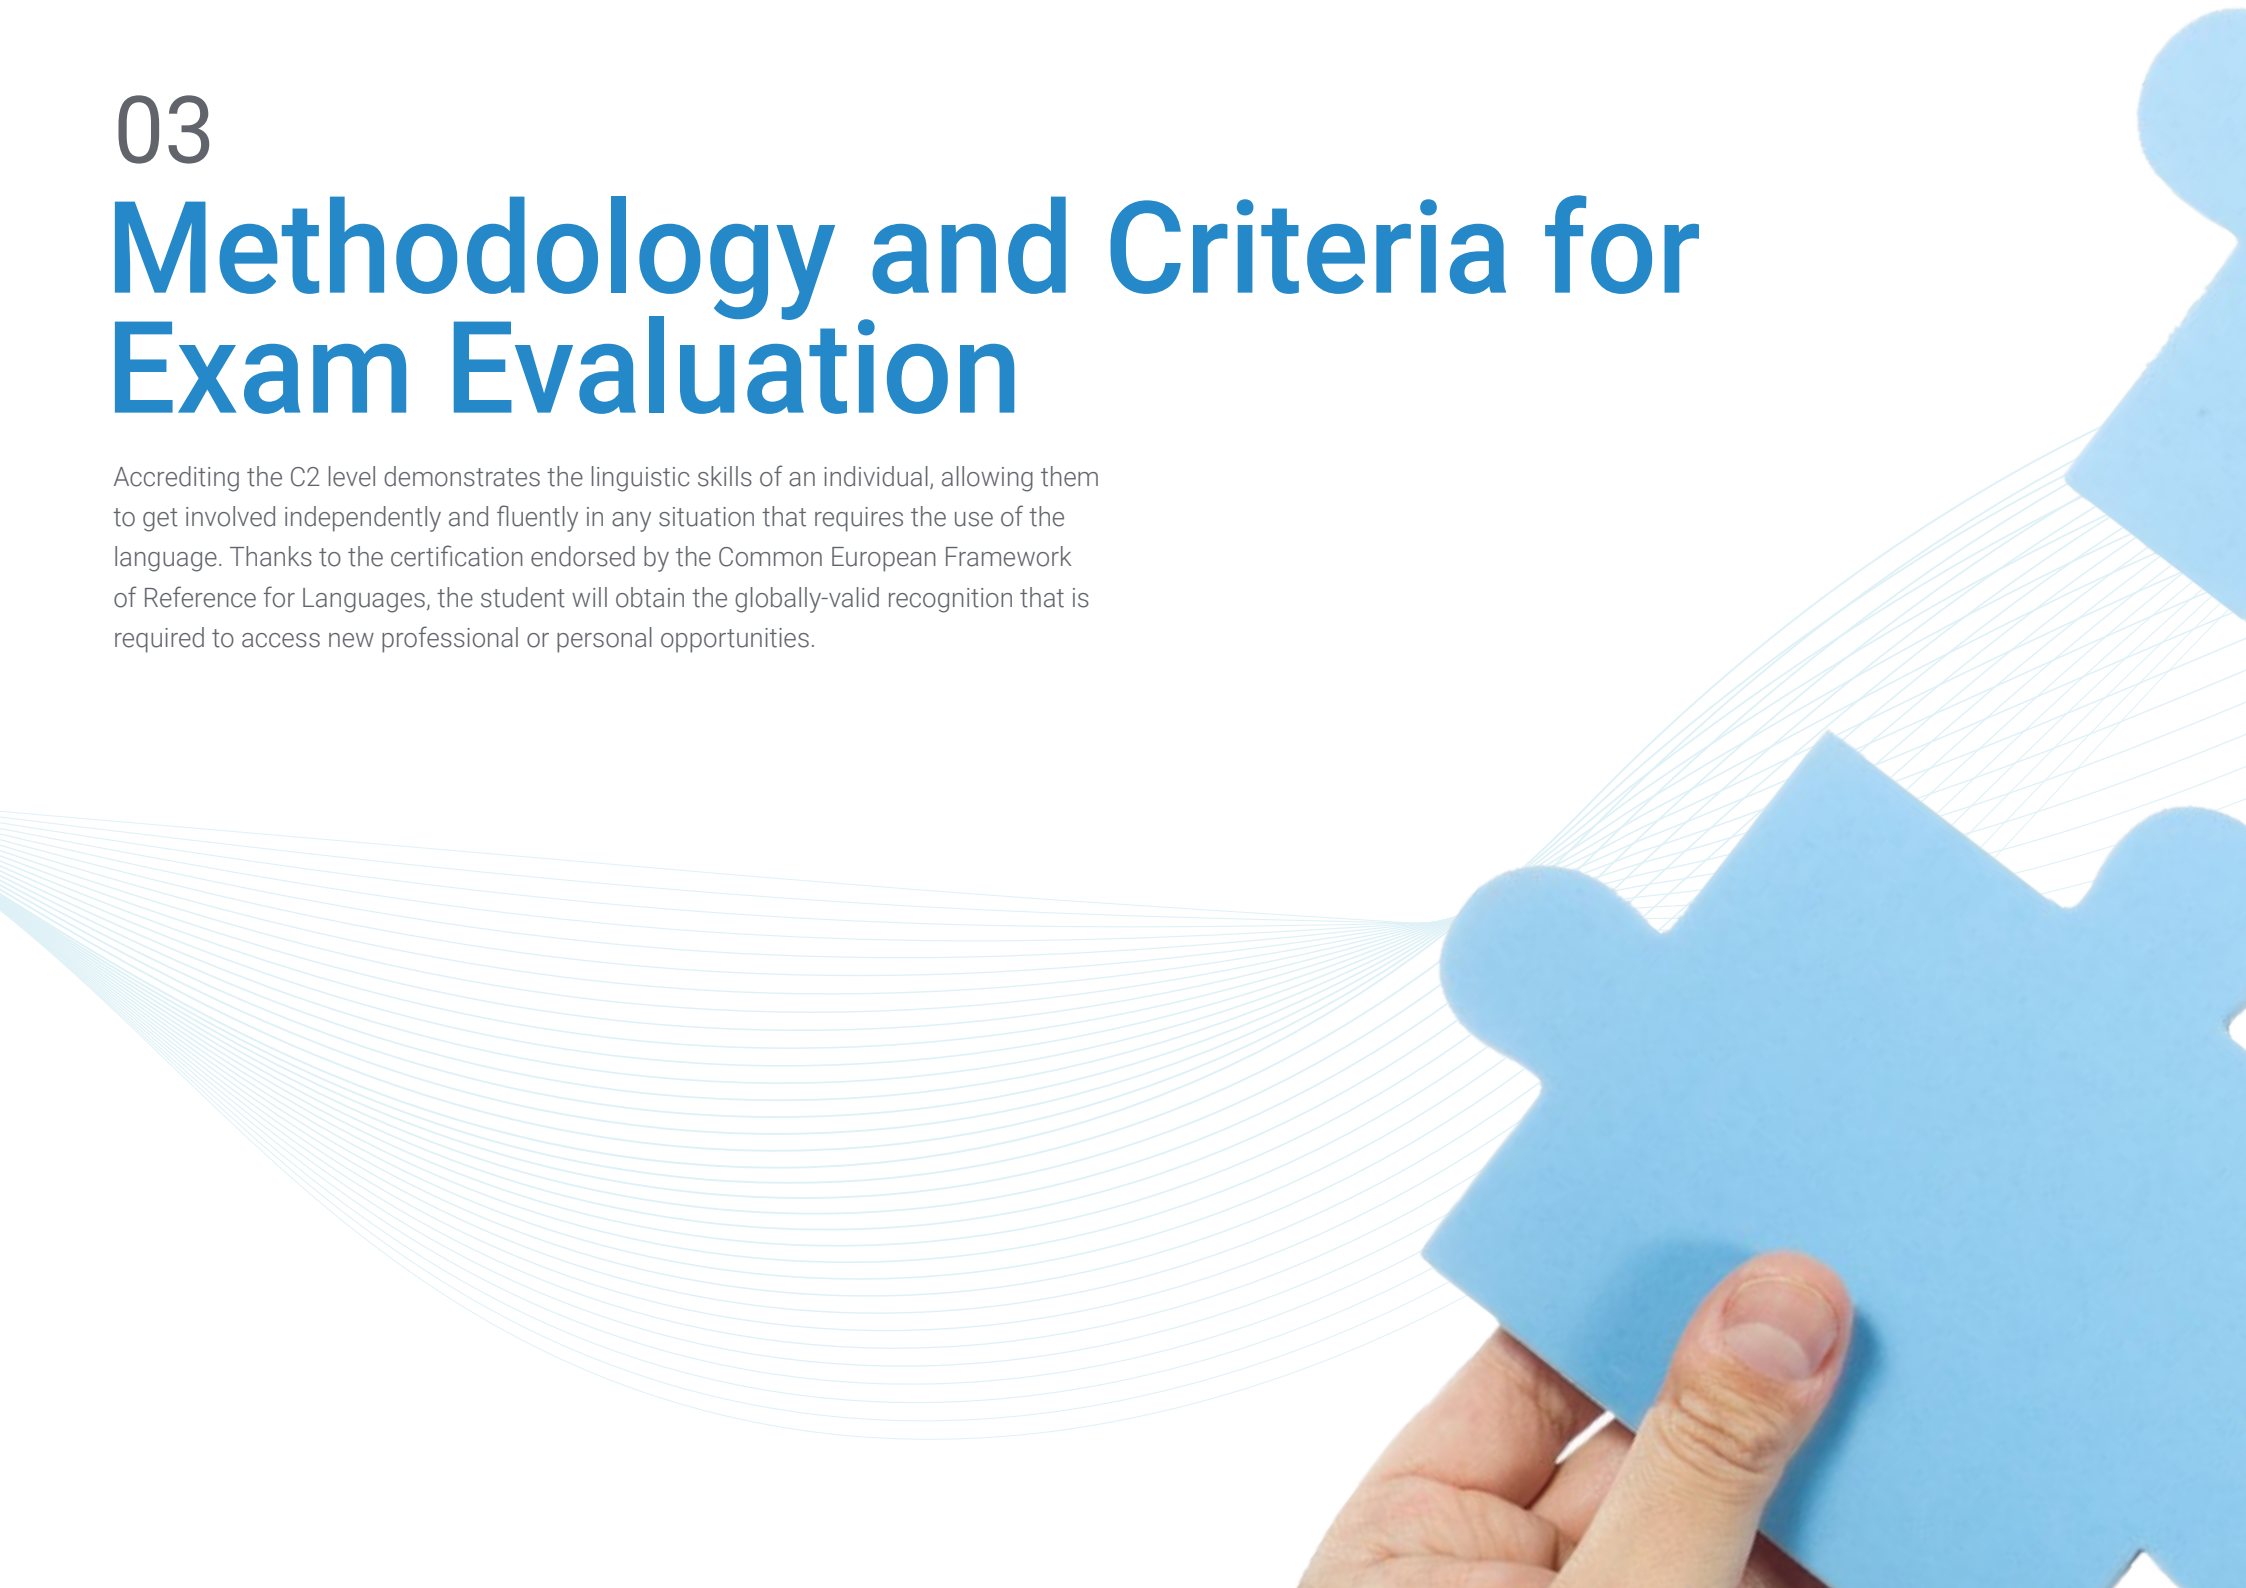

This is the moment you have been waiting for to reach the highest level of Spanish"

Methodology and Criteria for Exam Evaluation

Accrediting the C2 level demonstrates the linguistic skills of an individual, allowing them to get involved independently and fluently in any situation that requires the use of the language. Thanks to the certification endorsed by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, the student will obtain the globally-valid recognition that is required to access new professional or personal opportunities.

When it comes to the day of taking the exam, you will be supported by a personal tutor to whom you can speak at any moment"

What are the C2 Level Skills?

Although level C2 has been referred to as "Mastery", it does not imply native proficiency. It is intended to characterize the degree of precision, appropriateness and ease of use in the language that typifies the speech of bright students. Graded descriptors here include:

01 Can convey subtle nuances of meaning accurately using, with reasonable accuracy, a wide range of modification mechanisms

02 Have a good command of idiomatic and colloquial expressions, being aware of the connotative level of meaning

" This CEFR certificate is valid worldwide, as it is not limited to a single country or region"

03 He knows how to navigate difficulties so discreetly that the interlocutor hardly notices

04 Can easily understand virtually everything they hear or read

05 Can reconstruct information and arguments from various sources, whether in spoken or written language, and present them in a coherent and summarized manner

06 Can express themselves spontaneously, with great fluency and with a degree of precision that allows them to differentiate fine nuances in meaning even in more complex situations

At TECH you can take your exam from home, with a personal tutor and with all the guarantees of a 100% CEFR certificate"

Structure of the Level C2 Spanish exam

It consists of 4 parts:

Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing.

The total duration of the exam is 185 to 255 minutes, with the first three parts taking place one after the other (1st Listening, 2nd Writing, 3rd Reading). There will be a minimum of 20 minutes of rest between the first three parts and the 4th part (Speaking), which can be done on the same day, or on a different day, with a maximum limit of 7 days after the other block has been completed.

Listening (Duration 35-45 minutes)

Listening consists of 4 exercises, each of which is based on an audio recording that can be a monologue or a conversation between 2 or more people. Exercises include multiple choice, sentence completion, completion of charts, graphs or diagrams, and short answers in one or two sentences. In this part of the exam, it should be noted that accents from any part of the world can be heard, which adds a substantial degree of difficulty.

Reading (Duration: 80-100 minutes)

It consists of 50 questions grouped in 5 sections. Several authentic texts are presented, totalling between 2500 and 3200 words, on which several questions are asked. The texts are actual excerpts from books, research articles, newspapers and scientific journals. The type of questions, as in the oral part, is highly varied: multiple choice, completing tables, graphs or diagrams, locating information in the text, indicating the writer's opinion, etc.

Writing (Duration: 70-90 minutes)

This part consists of two exercises, an essay of 250 to 400 words and another of 500 to 700 words. As a first draft a small report is usually requested on a piece of information provided to the examinee in any format (text, graph, table or diagram).

Regarding the 250 word essay, a piece of information is usually presented very briefly (a couple of lines), followed by a statement about it, and then the candidate is asked to explain whether they agree or disagree with the statement, briefly stating the necessary arguments. The second exercise accounts for two thirds of the Writing grade and the first exercise for one third.

Speaking (Duration: 15-20 minutes)

In this last part, a conversation is held with an examiner, and it is designed to be as realistic as possible. It is divided into 3 subsections. In the first, the candidate responds to personal, family and/or everyday questions. In the second, the candidate discusses a specific topic indicated by the examiner. In this case, the ability to produce a coherent and orderly discourse is valued. In the third and last one, both the examiner and the candidate have a conversation on a specific topic, where oral interaction and discussion skills are assessed. The entire speaking part is recorded for later review purposes.
