01 Welcome

English is found in the majority of resources and tools that are commonly accessed in diverse work environments. This means that many job offers require a minimum level of fluency in this language, especially if they are focused on the digital field or have requirements related to the Internet, as more than 50% of the world's websites are in English.

Therefore, certifying a B1 Level in English is a decisive step towards a better working future. This intermediate level is ideal to consolidate intermediate skills in the CV that will boost its quality, without having to resort to higher levels that require more effort.

More than 70% of current job offers have a basic command of English as a minimum requirement. Increase your employability with this university certificate in English B1 from TECH"

Introduction

Level B1 is the first contact with more advanced environments and situations, so it is of vital importance to certify this level of ability for possible international job offers or opportunities. Since the English language is widely used even outside of English-speaking countries, this university exam is a great step towards international projection. English Level B1 provides the perfect foundation for candidates who have an intermediate level of English, but do not want to make the time investment required for B2, estimated at 200 hours.

You will even have the option of deciding when and at what time to take the exam, with the support of a personal TECH examiner.

You will significantly improve the language section of your résumé by providing a certificate in intermediate English endorsed by the CEFR.

02

Why Is it Important to Obtain B1 Certification?

Since English is such a predominant language, the level of demand is usually higher.

Therefore, it is crucial for success in the labor market to certify an intermediate level of understanding of the language, and it is even more important that this assessment is ratified according to the CEFR.

Moreover, any profession or job that is public-facing already requires a good command of English, so this TECH university language exam is a quality academic option to increase one's employability in the service sector.

You will certify your developed English skills in a comfortable and agile way, without worrying about travel or cumbersome procedures”

tech 10 | Why Is it Important to Obtain B1 Certification?

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes a set of criteria for assessing a learner's level in a given language. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid. TECH offers the opportunity to take a unique test, in which the student will obtain a university level qualification based entirely on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

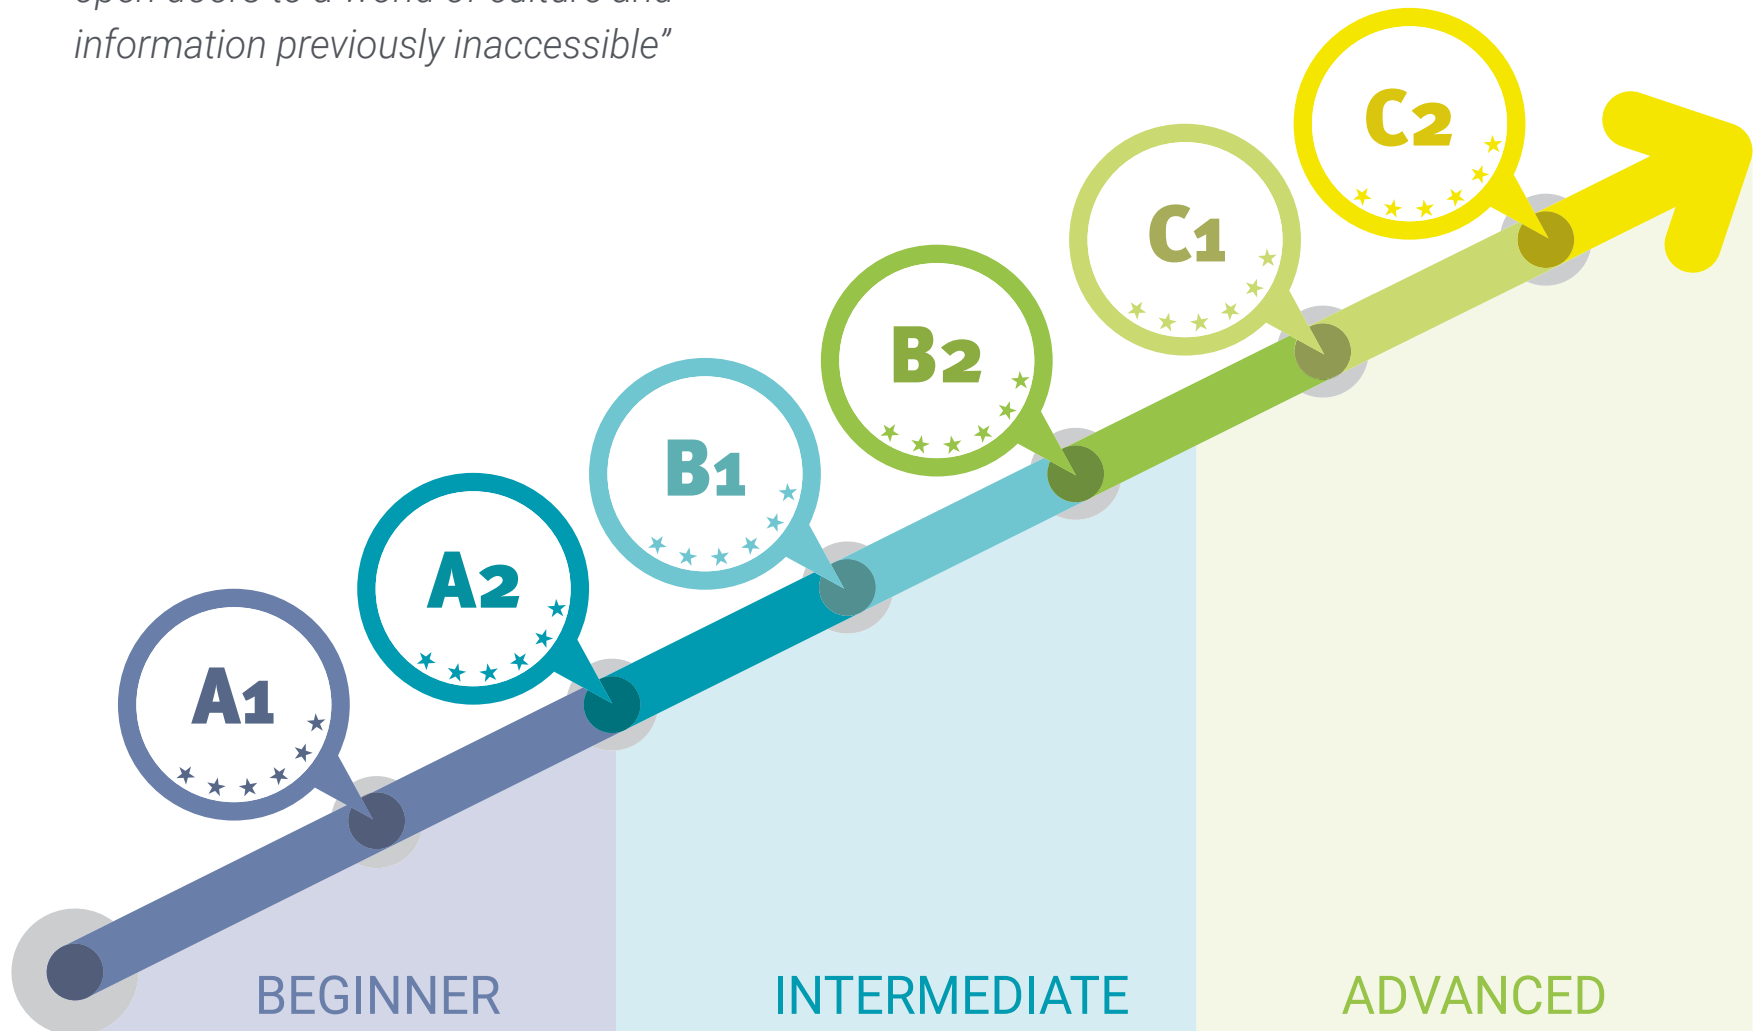

Being CEFR compliant, this university exam will help you to project your career abroad with the most widely used language in the world.

You will gain a significant competitive advantage in job boards and selection processes where English language proficiency is important.

In today's globalized world, your university certificate in B1 English will open doors to a world of culture and information previously inaccessible”

03

Methodology and Criteria for Exam Evaluation

TECH has taken meticulous and exhaustive care in the development of this language test, in order to provide the candidate with the maximum guarantee and international endorsement. Following the guidelines described by the CEFR, this exam is adapted to the most widely accepted language framework worldwide.

A high score on this B1 test guarantees you a high intermediate level, giving you more confidence for future improvement”

What are the B1 Level Skills?

01

Can understand the main points of clear, standard-language texts on familiar matters, whether in work, study or leisure situations

02

Knows how to deal with most of the situations that may arise during a trip in areas where the language is used

Level B1 reflects the Threshold Level specification for a traveler going to a foreign country, and has perhaps two main features. The first is the ability to maintain interaction and make oneself understood in a variety of situations, for example:

- ♦ Generally understands the main ideas of extended discussions around them, provided the discourse is clearly articulated at a standard language level.
- ♦ Offers and asks for opinions in an informal discussion with friends
- ♦ Expresses in an understandable way the main idea you want to get across
- ♦ Flexibly uses broad and simple language to express much of what it wants to express
- ♦ Able to hold a conversation or debate, but can sometimes be difficult to understand when they try to say exactly what they want to say.
- ♦ Express themselves comprehensibly, although their pauses for some grammatical and lexical planning and some corrections are evident, especially in long periods of free production

03

Produce simple and coherent texts on topics that are familiar to him/her or in which he/she has a personal interest

04

Can describe experiences, events, desires and aspirations, as well as briefly justify their opinions or explain their plans

The second characteristic is the ability to know how to deal flexibly with everyday problems such as, for example:

- ♦ Confronts less common situations on public transport than the typical situations that arise when booking travel through an agency or when traveling
- ♦ Participates in conversations on regular topics without having planned to do so
- ♦ Is able to raise complaints
- ♦ Takes the initiative in an interview or consultation (e.g., knows how to initiate a new topic), yet is still noted to be dependent on the interviewer during the interaction
- ♦ Knows how to ask someone to clarify or elaborate on what has just been said

With this university exam, you can certify a Level B1 in English, one of the most important and exciting languages in Europe and the world"

Structure of the Level B1 English exam

It consists of 4 parts:

Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing

The total duration of the exam is 137 to 195 minutes, with the first three parts taking place one after the other (1st Listening, 2nd Writing, 3rd Reading). There will be a minimum of 20 minutes of rest between the first three parts and the 4th part (Speaking), which can be done on the same day, or on a different day, with a maximum limit of 7 days after the other block has been completed.

Listening (Duration: 30-40 minutes)

Listening consists of 4 exercises, each of which is based on an audio recording that can be a monologue or a conversation between 2 or more people. Exercises include: multiple response, sentence completion, completion of charts, graphs or diagrams, and short answer in one or two sentences. In this part of the exam, it should be noted that accents from any part of the world can be heard, which adds a substantial degree of difficulty.

Reading (Duration: 45-70 minutes)

It consists of 40 questions grouped in 3 sections. Each text is between one and two pages long and several questions are asked about it. The texts are excerpts from books, research articles, newspapers and scientific journals. The type of questions, as in the oral part, is highly varied: multiple answers, completing tables, graphs or diagrams, locating information in the text, indicating the writer's opinion, etc.

Writing (Duration: 50-70 minutes)

This part consists of two exercises, an essay between 80 and 200 words and another between 200 and 350 words. As a first draft a small report is usually requested on a piece of information provided to the examinee in any format (text, graph, table or diagram).

Regarding the 200-350 word essay, a piece of information is usually presented very briefly (a couple of lines), followed by a statement about it, and then the candidate is asked to explain whether they agree or disagree with the statement, briefly stating the necessary arguments. The second exercise accounts for two thirds of the "Writing" grade and the first exercise for one third.

Speaking (Duration: 12-15 minutes)

In this last part, a conversation is held with an examiner, and it is designed to be as realistic as possible. It is divided into 3 subsections. In the first, the candidate responds to personal, family and/or everyday questions. In the second, the candidate discusses a specific topic indicated by the examiner. In this case, the ability to produce a coherent and orderly discourse is valued. In the third and last one, both the examiner and the candidate have a conversation on a specific topic, where oral interaction and discussion skills are assessed. The entire speaking part is recorded for later review purposes.

Sections
Duration	Skills	Observations	Items	Tasks	Time	Instructions
B1 137-195 minutes	Oral expression and interaction	Monologue and directed questions. Oral examinations must be recorded		Minimum 2	12-15 minutes	Instructions in mother tongue
