01 Welcome

It is increasingly common that a high intermediate level of English is required in technological or moderately advanced environments to enter the selection process. Following the pandemic of 2020, the digitalization of many companies has accelerated dramatically, also causing workers to be prepared for international meetings or interventions in which the main and shared language will be English.

Therefore, nowadays it is understood that English is extremely important to give a distinctive boost to any professional career. Certifying at the B2 level also opens the door to networking with high-level contacts and potential business partners. Because of this, TECH has emphasized that this university exam meets the most stringent requirements of the CEFR.

Many people claim to have an advanced or intermediate level of English, but fail to demonstrate or certify it.

You will be able to do so with one of the best academic options possible”

Introduction

The B2 level of English already demonstrates a high intermediate command of the language, with the ability to function in a multitude of work and personal situations. The importance of English on an international level, spoken by more than 900 million non-native speakers, makes it necessary to have a high level of certification in this language in order to excel in it.

This university assessment is the perfect opportunity to bring quality and distinction to the language section of a resume, using the most advanced educational technology and the numerous means that TECH makes available to the candidate.

Take advantage of the flexibility that only TECH can offer you, with a personal examiner who will attend to all your doubts and requirements.

Rely on the largest university institution in Spanish to certify your English Level B2 and get the recognition that will lead you to a better working future.

It is proven that learning languages increases your Intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks”

José Antonio Marina.
Philosopher, writer, and teacher.

Flexible and Tailored

Take your exam wherever you are, 100% online and at the time of your choice. You choose the exam that best suits you.

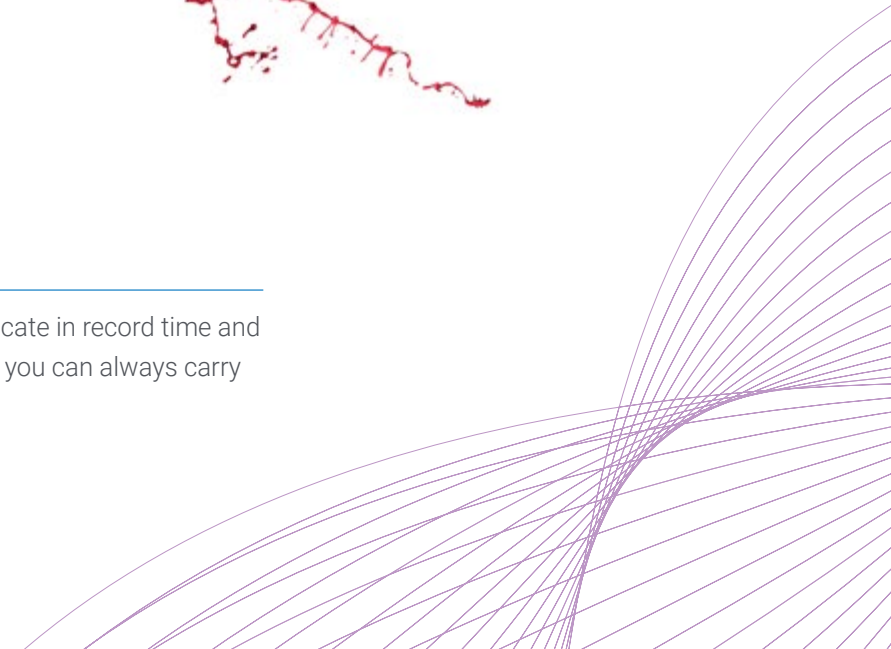

No Stress

Are you nervous about waiting in long lines to register for the exam and take the different tests? You will be able to register online and take your test with an examiner just for you, with no external pressure.

No Waiting

Receive your certificate in record time and in digital format so you can always carry it with you.

02

Why Is it Important to Obtain B2 Certification?

Most foreign universities require a minimum level of B2 in English. In addition, many jobs that need some training also require a B2 level of English. Therefore, this university certification is decisive when it comes to projecting any working career towards international environments, whether in English-speaking or non-English speaking countries.

In addition, the B2 allows you to obtain a significant advantage in any selection process or public employment exchange, as you will obtain outstanding scores by providing your university certification.

You will prove your professional worth and desire to continue to grow with your B2 English qualification”

tech 10 | Why Is it Important to Obtain B2 Certification?

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes a set of criteria for assessing a learner's level in a given language. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid.

TECH offers the opportunity to take a unique test, in which the student will obtain a university level qualification based entirely on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

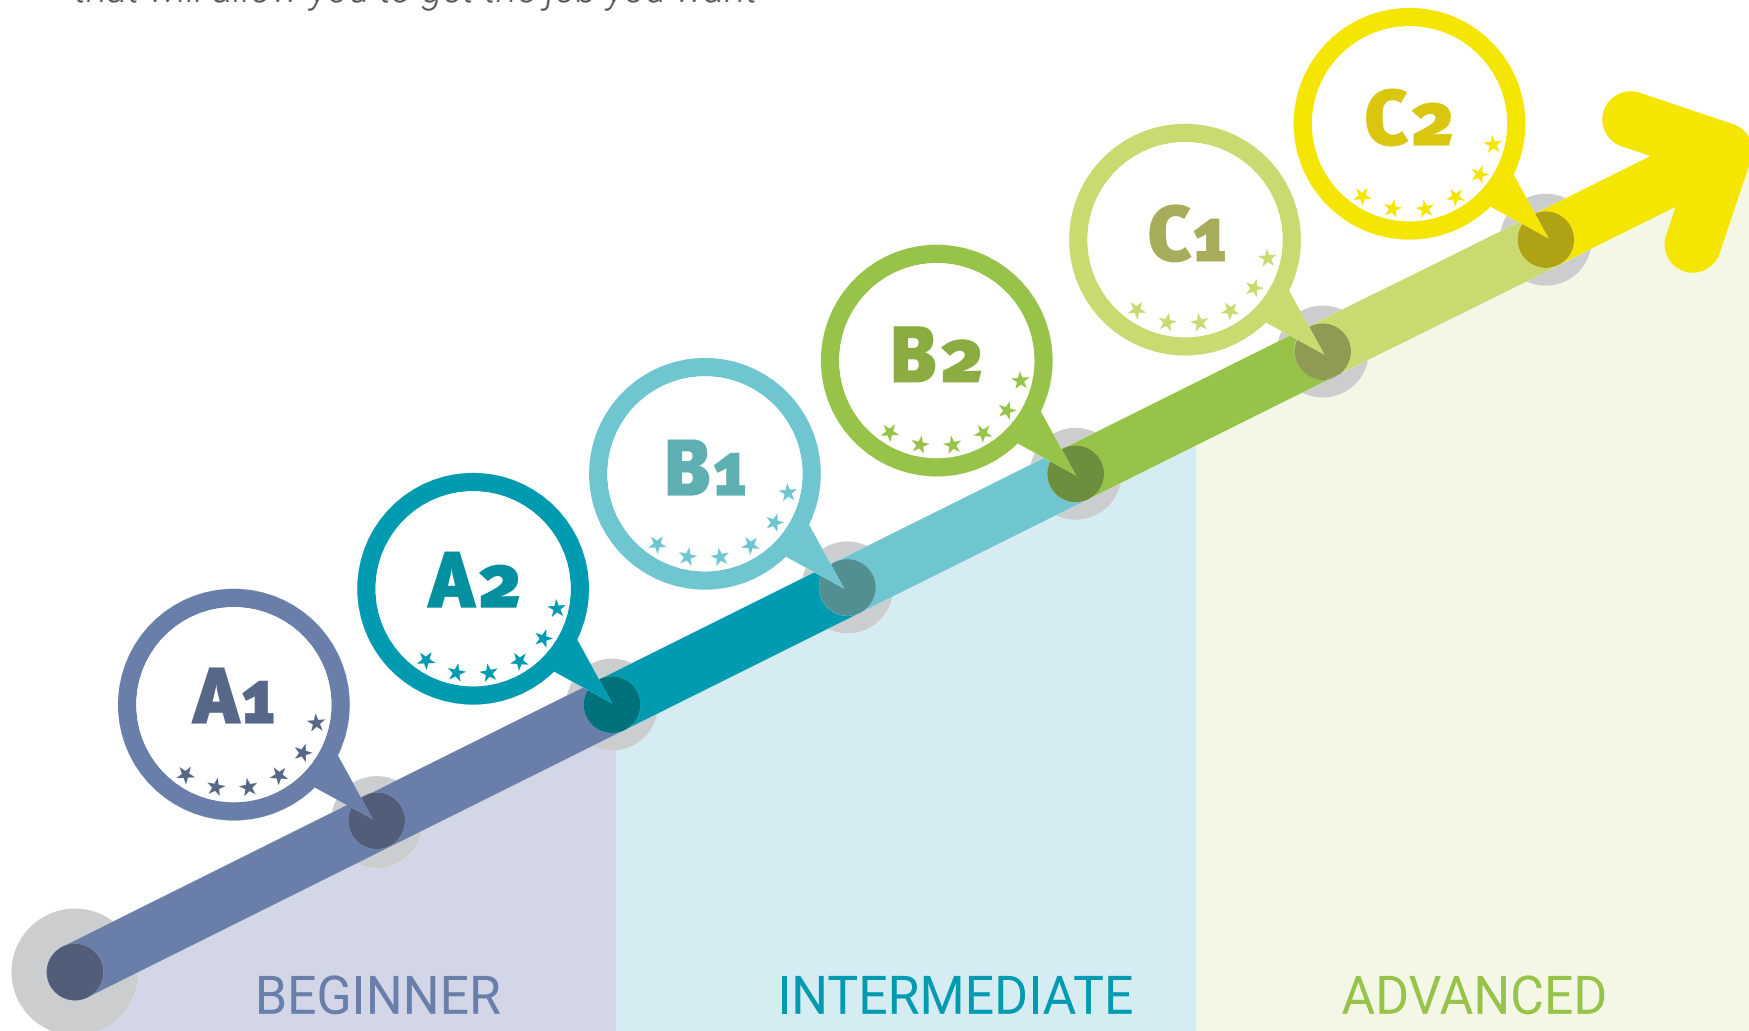

You will be far ahead of other candidates who claim to have intermediate level English but cannot prove it.

You will be able to continue to grow within your own organization, taking on more roles and responsibilities that require a person with advanced knowledge of English.

Your career will take a leap into the international arena with a university certificate that will allow you to get the job you want”

03

Methodology and Criteria for Exam Evaluation

The exhaustive and complete methodology used by TECH for this exam, created according to the requirements of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, guarantees its quality compared to other qualifications.

TECH guarantees you a transversal exam in which you will demonstrate your reading, writing and oral comprehension skills”

What are the B2 Level Skills?

The B2 level accreditation test corresponds to the fourth level of the six levels that make up the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. In this level the user is predisposed to an advanced command of the language, being able to develop numerous linguistic characteristics:

01

It is the ability to understand the main ideas in complex texts which deal with both concrete and abstract topics, even if they are of a technical nature, as long as they are within their field of expertise.

02

You can interact with native speakers with a sufficient degree of fluency and naturalness, so that communication is effortless for the interlocutors.

This is the best time to invest in your future and choose a language that will open doors to many countries and professional environments”

03

You can produce clear and detailed texts on a range of diverse topics, as well as defend your point of view on general topics, indicating the pros and cons or different options.

04

Can describe experiences, events, desires and aspirations, as well as briefly justify their opinions or explain their plans

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B2 (According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ♦ Offer clear descriptions
- ♦ Express points of view on general topics without obvious pauses to search for a word, using complex sentences to achieve it

Correction

- ♦ Demonstrate relatively high grammatical accuracy
- ♦ Not making mistakes that lead to misunderstanding
- ♦ Correct almost all mistakes

Fluency

- ♦ Produce fragments of a speech with a fairly uniform rhythm, although there could be pauses while thinking of certain structures or expressions
- ♦ Make few long pauses during the speech

Interaction

- ♦ Start a conversation, take your turn to speak at the appropriate moment and finish a conversation when necessary, although it may not always be done with elegance
- ♦ Participate in debates on day to day topics, demonstrating understanding, inviting others to participate, etc.

Coherence

- ♦ Use a limited number of cohesion mechanisms to turn sentences into a clear and coherent speech, although there may be some "nervousness" if the speech is long

01

Objectives

Listening comprehension objectives

The candidate is able to:

- ◆ Understand the main ideas of a linguistically complex speech, dealing with both concrete and abstract topics delivered at a standard language level, including technical discussions within their field of expertise
- ◆ Understand long speeches and complex lines of reasoning as long as the subject matter is reasonably familiar and the development of the speech is facilitated by explicit markers
- ◆ Understand any type of speech, both face-to-face conversations and broadcast speeches, on topics, usual or not, of personal, social, academic or professional life. Only excessive background noise, inadequate structuring of speech or idiomatic use of language affect their ability to understand
- ◆ Pick up with some effort much of what is being said around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in a discussion with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- ◆ Follow lively conversations between native speakers
- ◆ Understand the main ideas of linguistically complex lectures, talks and reports, and other forms of academic and professional presentation
- ◆ Understand statements and messages on concrete and abstract topics, in standard language and at a normal pace

Reading comprehension objectives

The candidate is able to:

- ♦ Understand most radio documentaries and other recorded or rebroadcast material spoken in standard language, and identify the speaker's mood and tone
- ♦ Understand recordings in standard language that may be encountered in social, professional or academic life, and identify the speaker's points of view and attitudes, as well as the content of the information

- ♦ Read with a high level of independence, adapting reading style and speed to different texts and purposes and use appropriate reference sources selectively. Have a large active reading vocabulary, but may have some difficulty with infrequent idioms
- ♦ Read information related to their field of expertise and easily grasp the essential meaning
- ♦ Quickly search through long and complex texts to locate relevant details. Quickly identify the content and significance of news items, articles and reports on a wide range of professional topics and decide whether further analysis is appropriate

- ♦ Understand articles and reports related to current problems in which the authors express specific viewpoints
- ♦ Obtain information, ideas and opinions from highly specialized sources within their field of interest. Understand specialized articles that are not in their field of expertise as long as they can use a dictionary from time to time to confirm their interpretation of the terminology
- ♦ Understand lengthy and complex instructions that are within their expertise, including details about conditions and warnings as long as they can re-read difficult sections
- ♦ Understand most television news and current affairs programs. Understand documentaries, live interviews, debates, plays and most standard-language films

- ♦ Speak fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, professional or leisure topics, clearly marking the relationship between ideas. Communicates spontaneously and has good grammatical control without showing many signs of having to restrict what he/she says and adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances
- ♦ Understand in detail what is said in standard language, even in an environment with background noise
- ♦ Approach extensive conversations on most general topics, even in a noisy environment, in a clearly participatory manner
- ♦ Have conversations with native speakers without unintentionally amusing or annoying them, and without demanding different behavior from them than they would have with a native speaker
- ♦ Convey a certain emotion and highlight the personal importance of facts and experiences
- ♦ Follow the rhythm of lively discussions between native speakers. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines of argument convincingly and respond to them
- ♦ Take an active part in informal discussions that occur in everyday situations by making comments, clearly expressing their points of view, evaluating alternative proposals, making hypotheses and responding to them
- ♦ With some effort, pick up much of what is said in discussions

03

Speaking objectives

The candidate is able to:

- ♦ Participate in conversations with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that enables regular interaction with native speakers without strain for either party. Emphasize the personal importance of certain facts and experiences, express and defend points of view with clarity, providing adequate explanations and arguments going on around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in discussions with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way

- Express and uphold their opinions in discussions by providing appropriate explanations, arguments, and comments
- Understand, with complete certainty, detailed instructions. Contribute to the progress of the work by inviting others to participate, speak up, etc.
- Outline an issue or problem clearly, speculating on the causes or consequences and comparing the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches
- Negotiate the resolution of conflicts, such as claiming an unfair traffic fine, claiming financial responsibility for damages caused in an apartment or for culpability in an accident
- Express their opinions in the event of damages, using persuasive language to claim compensation, and clearly establish the limits of any concession they are willing to make
- Explain a problem that has arisen and make it clear that the service provider or customer must make concessions
- Understand and exchange complex information and advice on all matters related to their profession. Communicates detailed information with complete certainty
- Make clear and detailed descriptions of how to carry out a procedure. Summarizes and communicates information and arguments from a variety of sources

- Conduct effective and fluent interviews, even spontaneously departing from prepared questions, following the thread and giving interesting answers
- Take the initiative in an interview, and expand and develop their ideas, either with little help or getting it if needed from the interviewee

Writing objectives

The candidate is able to:

- Express news and points of view effectively when writing and establish a relationship with other people's points of view
- Write letters that convey emotion and highlight the personal significance of events and experiences; comment on the news and views of the person they are writing to

Features of the B2 English Exam

1 What does the TECH Global University TEST ASSESS?

- ♦ The contents of the exams and the evaluation criteria will be those corresponding to the CEFR descriptors.
- ♦ No published assignments or test materials will be used.
- ♦ The four skills (oral and written expression, oral and written comprehension) will be evaluated together or separately. Use of language tasks may also be included.
- ♦ All test tasks, with the possible exception of the use of language tasks, will be close to real-world tasks and the text materials will be authentic, as far as possible and according to the level tested.

2 How long does the test last?

- ♦ The exams, whatever the level, shall not be less than 142 minutes or more than 200 minutes long.

3 How is the test carried out?

- The oral and written comprehension tests, as well as the written expression test, are conducted via computer.
- The speaking test consists of an interview, whenever possible, with two examiners and recorded.
- The written and oral expression tests, whenever possible, will be evaluated by two examiners according to the procedures established by TECH.

Candidates must obtain at least a 6 on each part of the exam in order to obtain a PASS grade.

If you do not pass all areas, you will not get your certificate but you will obtain a detailed report of your skills in each area and competency.

4 What are the assessment criteria?

With regard to grades, TECH, following the recommendations, uses the following criteria:

Candidates who obtain at least 60% in each of the 4 parts of the exam will pass the exam. Based on the overall score, a grade will be awarded that will appear on the certificate issued by TECH, according to the following scale:

In the event that a candidate does not pass any of the 4 parts of the test, they must retake the entire exam.

Structure, duration and weighting of the 4 parts of the examination

Duration	Sections		Instructions
	Skill	Time
A1 142-200 minutes	Speaking	Monologue and directed questions	12-15 minutes
	Listening comprehension	Short audios, which may be short dialogues or monologues related to topics of the level.	35-45 minutes
	Writing	Various written expression activities; may include use of language activities.	50-70 minutes
	Reading comprehension	Various reading comprehension activities	45-70 minutes
			Instructions in mother tongue

Structure of the Level B2 English exam

It consists of 4 parts:

Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing.

The total duration of the exam is 142 to 200 minutes, with the first three parts taking place one after the other (1st Listening, 2nd Writing, 3rd Reading). There will be a minimum of 20 minutes of rest between the first three parts and the 4th part (Speaking), which can be done on the same day, or on a different day, with a maximum limit of 7 days after the other block has been completed.

Listening (Duration 35-45 minutes)

Listening consists of 4 exercises, each of which is based on an audio recording that can be a monologue or a conversation between 2 or more people. Exercises include, multiple choice, sentence completion, completion of charts, graphs or diagrams, and short answers in one or two sentences. In this part of the exam, it should be noted that accents from any part of the world can be heard, which adds a substantial degree of difficulty.

Reading (Duration: 45-70 minutes)

It consists of 40 questions grouped in 3 sections. Each text is between 1300 and 2100 words long and several questions are asked about it. The texts are actual excerpts from books, research articles, newspapers and scientific journals. The type of questions, as in the oral part, is highly varied: multiple answers, completing tables, graphs or diagrams, locating information in the text, indicating the writer's opinion, etc.

Writing (Duration: 50-70 minutes)

This part consists of two exercises, an essay between 125 and 250 words and another between 300 and 450 words. As a first draft a small report is usually requested on a piece of information provided to the examinee in any format (text, graph, table or diagram).

Regarding the 300-450 word essay, a piece of information is usually presented very briefly (a couple of lines), followed by a statement about it, and then the candidate is asked to explain whether they agree or disagree with the statement, briefly stating the necessary arguments. The second exercise accounts for two thirds of the Writing grade and the first exercise for one third.

Speaking (Duration: 12-15 minutes)

In this last part, a conversation is held with an examiner, and it is designed to be as realistic as possible. It is divided into 3 subsections. In the first, the candidate responds to personal, family and/or everyday questions. In the second, the candidate discusses a specific topic indicated by the examiner. In this case, the ability to produce a coherent and orderly discourse is valued. In the third and last one, both the examiner and the candidate have a conversation on a specific topic, where oral interaction and discussion skills are assessed. The entire speaking part is recorded for later review purposes.
