01 Welcome

A good motivation for studying Chinese may be to eventually emigrate. Interest in foreign languages in China is on the rise and languages such as English, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese and Spanish are among the most widely learned in the country. In order to be able to develop a good professional and even social life in China, it is necessary to have an adequate level of knowledge and a moderate fluency in speech. These TECH Online Conversation Classes offer a complete syllabus divided into blocks to review all oral language skills at Level B1 according to the CEFR.

Presentation video

This university program will allow you to master Chinese Level B1, being able to pass the CEFR oral accreditation test thanks to it"

Introduction

It is estimated that more than 1.1 billion people speak Chinese, with a progressive increase over the years. This makes this language a safe bet for the future, as it is not only of prevailing relevance in the industrial, commercial and technological fields, but more and more people are learning it or speaking it as a matter of course. It is precisely the naturalness of the language that is the focus of this university program, with extensive practice on topics such as nature, work, family or personal tastes.

This university program will prepare you to pass the CEFR Chinese Level B1 oral test through more than 100 activities.

TECH's group classes will allow you to interact with other students and native teachers, ensuring that your learning process is the most effective.

It is proven that learning languages increases your Intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks"

02

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of modern culture, helping to expand knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, learning about the traditions of other countries, establishing friendships or doing business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society. Nowadays, you must have an official that accredits and recognizes your proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Proof of a B1 level of Chinese is essential to access master's and doctoral programs or scholarships. Get it thanks to this university course"

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH Global University we offer you the only intensive program designed to prepare you to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

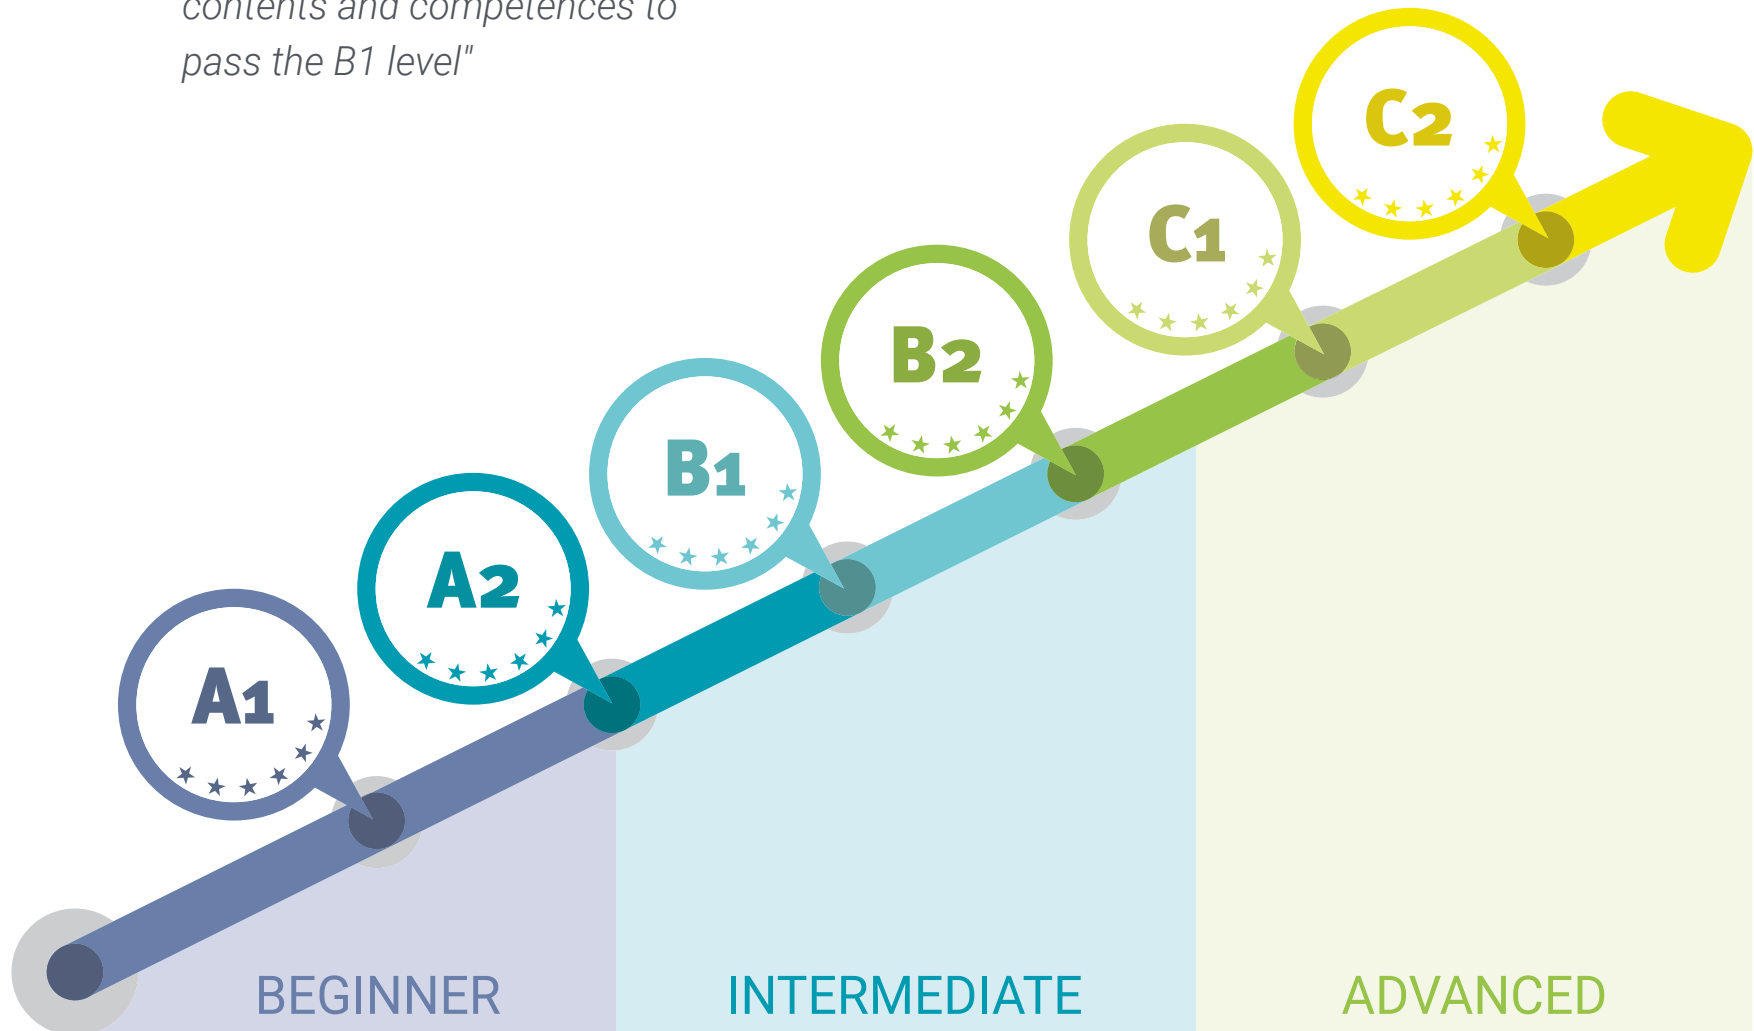

Be fluent in all types of conversations and gain access to important academic and professional opportunities. Enroll now.

TECH has the best teaching staff, composed of native teachers who will introduce you to Chinese in a simple and gradual way.

With this preparation program you will have all the necessary contents and competences to pass the B1 level”

03

What Is Level B1?

Level B1 is part of the Independent User Level, which is divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Independent User Level (B1 and B2).

B1 level has two main features: The first is the ability to maintain an interaction and make oneself understood in a variety of situations; for example: generally understanding the main ideas of extended discussions around them as long as the speech is clearly articulated at standard language level; offers and asks for personal opinions in an informal discussion with friends; expresses in an understandable way the main idea they want to get across; flexibly uses broad, simple language to express much of what they want; is able to carry on a conversation or discussion, but can sometimes be difficult to understand when trying to say exactly what they want; expresses themselves understandably, although pauses for some grammatical and lexical planning and some correctness are evident, especially in long periods of free production.

The second feature is the ability to know how to deal flexibly with everyday problems, such as, for example: coping with less common situations in public transport, the typical situations that often arise when making travel reservations through an agency or when traveling; participates in conversations on usual matters without having anticipated it; being able to raise complaints; taking the initiative in an interview or consultation (e.g., knows how to initiate a new topic), although still being noticeably dependent on the interviewer during the interaction; knowing how to ask someone to clarify or develop what he or she has just said.

Obtain the CEFR Chinese Level B1 certificate thanks to the conversational improvement that this university program will provide you"

What are the B1 Level Skills?

01

- ◆ Explain and briefly justify opinions and projects
- ◆ Narrate a story or tale, the plot of a book or movie, and describe their reactions

This program prepares you intensively, using the Relearning methodology, to comfortably pass the CEFR Level B1 oral test"

More than 100 different activities to improve your fluency, expression, comprehension and pronunciation.

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B1

(According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ◆ Possess a large enough linguistic repertoire to get by and an adequate vocabulary to express themselves, albeit hesitantly and with circumlocutions, on topics such as their family, hobbies and interests, work, travel and current

Interaction

- ◆ Initiate, maintain and end simple face-to-face conversations on everyday topics of personal interest
- ◆ Repeat part of what someone has said to confirm mutual understanding

Correction

- ◆ Use with reasonable accuracy a repertoire of commonly used formulas and structures associated with predictable situations

Coherence

- ◆ Link a series of short, distinct and simple elements to enable a linear sequence of related ideas

Fluency

- ◆ Continue to speak in a comprehensible manner, although pauses for grammatical, lexical planning and correction are evident, especially during long periods of free speech

Download and practice vocabulary: more than 50 pages of lexical cards and glossaries.

- We will work with more than 100 activities for different oral skills.
- We will subject you to real conversation situations with native speakers.
- We will work on mock exams so that you are 100% prepared.

Skills-based Practice

If the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes the consolidation of a language through the acquisition of skills and bases its official tests on these skills, why don't most of the online preparation courses for the level certificate work according to skills? In TECH you will work on all the oral skills established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages in each of the subjects through an innovative method that is 100% adapted to European guidelines. In this program we work according to skills, with more than 100 different activities in order to prepare you to obtain your official Chinese B1 certificate.

Simulated Learning Scenarios

At TECH, we believe in the importance of linguistic immersion to lay the foundations of a language as well as in storytelling to favor identification and first-person learning. Therefore, we present you with real and everyday situations with people like you who will face a new language and have to overcome all different kinds of problems. In this training we will expose you to real dialogues and conversation exercises designed and presented by experts and native speakers.

Specific Virtual Classes for CEFR B1

Are you ready for the exam? Our native teachers will explain to you all the tips and tricks you can use to pass the course with total guarantee of success, as well as the subjects you need to prepare better, the exercises that appear most frequently, mistakes to avoid, resources that can help you in certain situations, etc. All this prepared on video for you to consult when and as you wish.

Take the sessions with you on your cell phone and view them wherever you want!

Do you want to revisit the class afterwards and review where you made mistakes or how a word was pronounced? Download the recorded session and watch it again.

An interactive chat to share queries, expressions, complex words, etc. in writing.

In addition:

The student will be provided with the following interaction and communication tools, which will be combined throughout the course to obtain the desired level of skills at the level in question.

These are:

- Internal messaging tools with teachers and tutors
- Chat tools for written interaction
- Discussion forums for the development of written expression and interaction skills
- Telephone assistance to resolve technical questions or incidents
- Technical services contact e-mail

Our Methodology

The Online Conversation Classes program for B1 Chinese preparation is an intensive course for the Chinese B1 level certificate based 100% on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). For this purpose, TECH use a method of oral proficiency practice in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the contents required by the Framework, providing them with extensive preparation to pass the test.

You will not find a program like this one, which will allow you to work at your own pace, with native teachers, in small groups based on specific practice of the CEFR competencies in each session”

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECHs Chinese B1 level oral proficiency preparation program offers you a method based on interaction and synchronous and direct communication between teacher and student comprehensive preparation for the oral level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test.

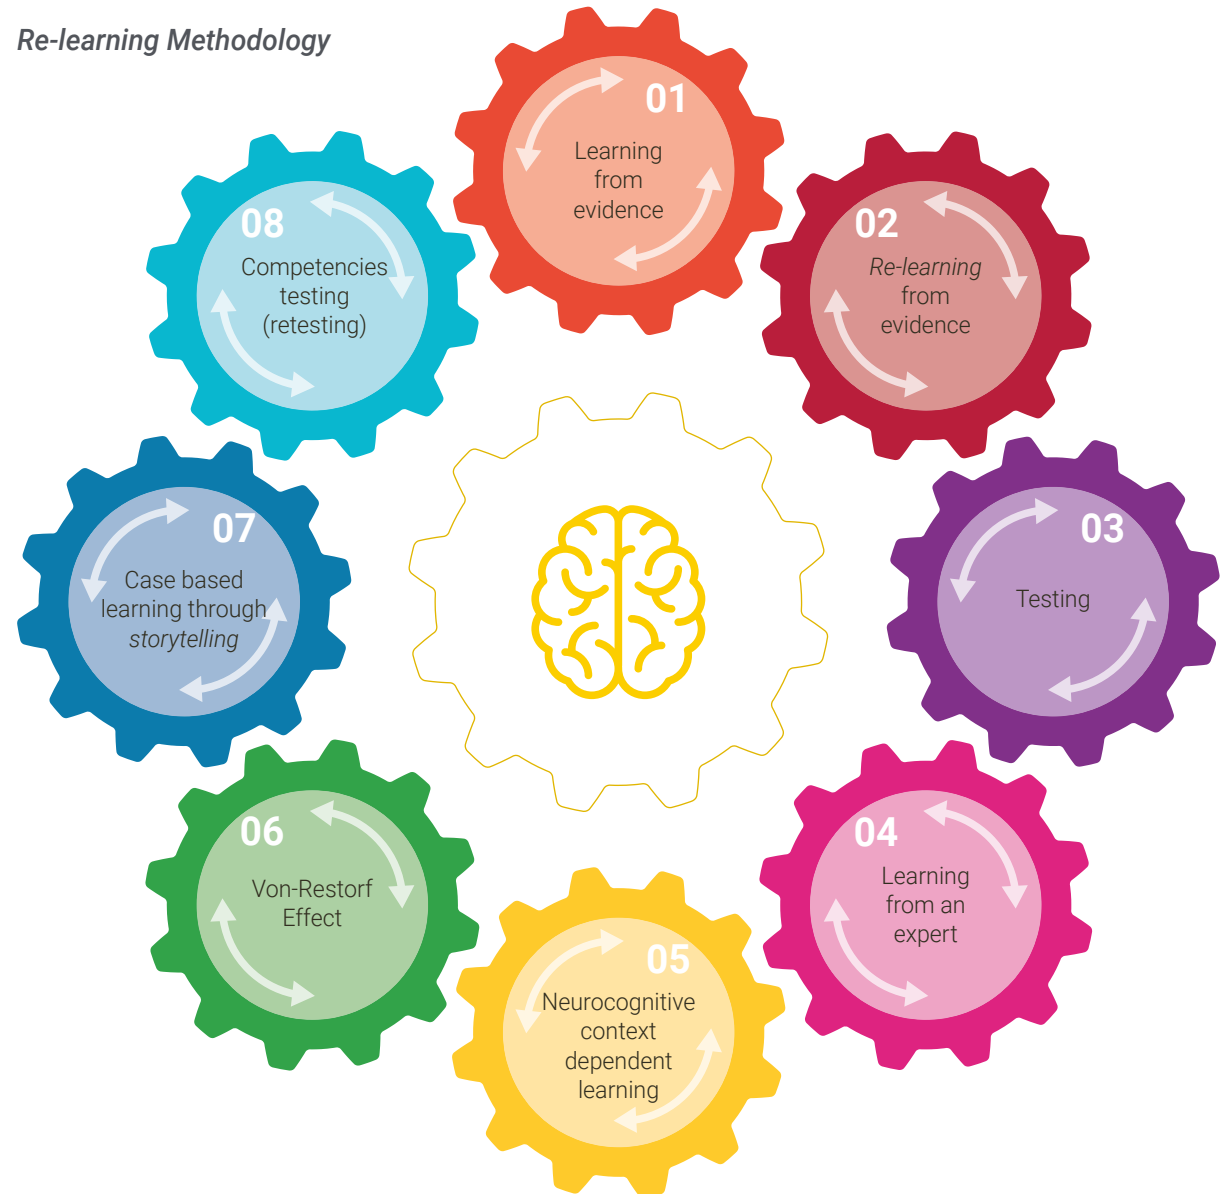

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Re-learning...

Our B1 CEFR oral communication skills preparation program is the only one on the market licensed to use the Relearning methodology, which enhances learning by optimizing the effort/result ratio.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Re-learning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed, in 2015, to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives, etc) of the students who complete the courses, with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

Re-learning Methodology

We prevent your motivation from waning and offer you the best learning environment.

TECH Global University intensive oral proficiency preparation program is based on synchronous communication, in real time, as this type of interaction has been proven to reinforce personal participation, strengthen work interaction, socio-emotional relationships and personal interactions, all of which helps to increase motivation. (Krasinski, 2008).

*...with a personalized updating itinerary
guided by experts...*

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, answer your questions or study recommendations.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone).”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called “Neurocognitive context-dependent learning”, the different elements of our intensive Chinese B1 level preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take their official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

... and all this with teachers at the forefront of technology and education...

Study wherever and however you want: connect with your mobile device and learn with the best native teachers.

Immersion in real situations

We present you with real conversational situations with native speakers with different accents in different contexts.

Course Objectives

The main goal of this university program is for the student to obtain oral competencies in Chinese corresponding to Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. To achieve this goal, TECH provides you with the best teaching materials, a high-level native teacher and a small conversation group with which you can put into practice everything you have learned, improving your expression and fluency in Chinese. In this way, you will be able to pass the level test leading to the CEFR Chinese B1 certificate.

Practice the speaking skills and abilities required by the B1 CEFR: more than 100 different practice exercises”

General Objectives

01

Use the language being learned as a means of communication and personal expression, both in the classroom and in a wide range of face-to-face and virtual situations and on both concrete and abstract topics, including cultural ones

02

Understand, interact and express themselves in these situations, orally in an adequate, reasonably flexible, accurate and correct way

03

Describe the sociocultural aspects related to usual situations, as well as those related to one's own environment and use the appropriate social formulas, gestures, register and treatment in these situations

04

Internalize the appropriate and necessary linguistic resources for the planned communicative activities, through functional and formal practice

05

Encourage and diversify the use of strategies that streamline communication and facilitate learning

06

Manage tools to evaluate and improve one's own learning and use of the language

Specific Objectives

Oral Comprehension

- Understand concrete everyday or work-related information and identify both the general message and specific details as long as the speech is clearly articulated and with a normal accent
- Understand the main ideas of clear, standard speech on everyday topics related to work, school or leisure time, including short narratives.
- Generally follow the main ideas of a long discussion going on around them, provided that the discourse is clearly articulated at a standard language level
- Understand, in general terms, simple and short speeches on everyday topics provided they are delivered with standard and clear pronunciation.
- Understand a lecture or talk that deals with their area of expertise, provided that the subject matter is familiar and the presentation is simple and clearly structured
- Understand simple technical information, such as operating instructions for frequently used appliances, as well as follow detailed instructions
- Understand the main ideas of radio news and other simpler recorded material dealing with everyday topics delivered relatively slowly and clearly.
- Understand the information content of most recorded or broadcast material related to topics of personal interest with clear standard pronunciation

Oral Expression

- Carry out, with a reasonable degree of fluency, a simple description of a variety of topics that are of interest to them, presenting them as a linear sequence of elements
- Give simple descriptions on a variety of common topics within your specialty
- Give simple narratives or descriptions with a reasonable degree of fluency following a linear sequence of elements
- Make detailed accounts of experiences describing feelings and reactions.
- Report the details of unpredictable events, such as, for example, an accident
- Relate book or movie plots and describe your reactions to them
- Describe dreams, hopes and ambitions
- Describe real or imagined events. Tell stories
- Provide brief rationales and explanations for opinions, plans and actions.
- Develop arguments well enough so that they can be understood without difficulty most of the time.
- Make short rehearsed statements on a relevant topic within their specialty, which are clearly intelligible despite being accompanied by an unmistakably foreign accent and intonation
- Deliver a brief, prepared presentation on a topic within their specialty, with sufficient clarity to be followed without difficulty most of the time and whose main ideas are explained with reasonable accuracy. Can also answer supplemental questions, but may have to ask for repetition if spoken quickly

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- ◆ Know how to carry out a wide variety of linguistic functions, using the most common exponents of these functions in a neutral register.
- ◆ Be aware of the most important rules of courtesy and act appropriately.
- ◆ Be aware of the most significant differences that exist between the customs, usages, attitudes, values and beliefs prevailing in the community in question and their own, and know how to identify such differences.
- ◆ Know how to carry out basic language functions such as exchanging and requesting information and expressing opinions and attitudes in a simple way.
- ◆ Adapt their expression to deal with less common and even difficult situations. Use a wide range of simple linguistic elements with the flexibility to express much of what is wanted.
- ◆ Intervene in debates on everyday topics using an appropriate phrase to take the floor. Initiate, maintain and end simple face-to-face conversations on everyday topics or of personal interest
- ◆ Perform, with reasonable fluency, simple narratives or descriptions, through a linear sequence of elements
- ◆ Link a series of short, specific and simple elements to enable a linear sequence of related ideas

Linguistic Competence

- ◆ Have sufficient linguistic elements to describe unpredictable situations, to explain the main points of an idea or problem with reasonable accuracy, and to express thoughts on abstract or cultural topics, such as music and movies.
- ◆ Have enough linguistic elements to get by and enough vocabulary to express themselves with some hesitation and circumlocution on topics such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel and current events, but lexical limitations cause repetition and sometimes even difficulties in formulation.
- ◆ Have sufficient vocabulary to express themselves with some circumlocution on most topics relevant to their daily lives, such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel, and current events.
- ◆ Demonstrate a good command of elementary vocabulary, even if significant errors are made when expressing more complex thoughts, or when dealing with unusual topics and situations.
- ◆ Communicate with reasonable accuracy in everyday situations; generally have good grammatical control, although with an obvious influence of the native language
- ◆ Use with reasonable accuracy a repertoire of commonly used "formulas " and structures associated with predictable situations
- ◆ Have a clearly intelligible pronunciation, even if their foreign accent is sometimes evident and sporadic mispronunciations are made.

In order to consolidate all these competencies you will have 40 sessions designed by expert teachers and based 100% on the CEFR”

Did you know?

Communicative competence is not merely limited to the knowledge and ability to use the linguistic code, but has other broader dimensions, which place it in direct relation with other competences such as information processing and digital competence, learning to learn, social and civic competence, or cultural and artistic competence.

This implies a cultural immersion that is only possible to recreate in the online format through simulated scenarios, storytelling, videos and real situations.

Enroll and see how TECH makes you improve your Chinese quickly and fluently.

Course Structure and Content

This university program was created with the purpose of bringing together a group of students who share the same level and linguistic objectives, in order to provide them with a series of enriching lessons in the oral fluency of the language. Thus, the teaching team will adapt each lesson to the interests and perspective of the group itself, reviewing the most important everyday situations, as well as the common vocabulary to comfortably pass Level B1.

Where, When and How is it Taught?

This course takes place over 4 months and consists of 40 60-minute live sessions taught by native-speaking teachers.

Each session is structured as follows:

- ◆ Practice of oral interaction skills
- ◆ Practice of oral expression skills
- ◆ Simulation of real situations
- ◆ Tips and tricks to prepare for the test
- ◆ Summary and closing
- ◆ Download printable sheets

“ You will boost your communication skills surrounded by a group of peers with whom you can share objectives, concerns and affinities”

B1 level Learning-Assessment Objectives

In each program, native teachers prepare a series of items that the student must overcome in order to satisfactorily achieve the course goals. Thanks to personalized tutoring, all the proposed objectives can be achieved in the shortest possible time, resulting in effective and efficient teaching.

- Advance to an intermediate level of language proficiency.
- Familiarize with new words and more advanced common grammar
- Develop listening, reading, writing and speaking skills to cope in a multitude of situations.
- Speak with some fluency about sports, nature, music and life goals or personal aspirations

The working groups will be small in size, which in addition to providing you with better listening comprehension, will give you multiple opportunities to intervene and enhance your conversational level”

"The largest volume of work that exists in my industry is mainly in China, so I decided to take the leap and try my luck by moving there. At first I was able to get by with English, but I soon realized that I needed to speak Chinese well in my day-to-day life, especially outside of work. The TECH Conversation Classes really helped me gain confidence with my pronunciation and diction of words"

Kilian Galindo

Logistics operator

"Moving to China was not an easy decision, as I was very impacted by the cultural difference and the language itself. At the beginning it was very difficult for me, but thanks to the patience of the TECH teachers I was able to become fluent enough to be able to speak Chinese well at an intermediate level. It has been an experience that I would recommend to anyone who still has doubts"

The Professional Benefits of Chinese

As Chinese is the most spoken language in the world at a native level, it is evident that studying this language will be a great boost for any person who wants to develop their career in Asia. In addition, the Chinese economy is one of the strongest in the world, which justifies and reinforces the decision to start studying this language.

Companies such as Tencent, TikTok or Xiaomi have already carved out a very important niche in the global technology markets, so a knowledge of the Chinese language is also an advantage to work in one of these economic giants.

In addition, the number of Chinese speakers is growing exponentially over the years. This makes this language a safe and differential option for the future in any curriculum.

Study the language of the future and present to stand out from your competitors”

11

Assessment and Certification

The main evaluation objective in TECH is that the student consolidates what they have learned and is aware of their progress. For this reason, after completing each block, the student is shown a report of the results, which visually indicates the skills that they should strengthen.

TECH'S B1 level oral communication skills preparation program is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate”

Certification

Upon completion of the course, the student will receive a certificate of recognition that will guarantee their preparation to obtain, if the student wishes, the certification of that level.
