01 Welcome

The student will be able to learn Chinese from the beginning, with an individual conversation course designed to give them the most solid foundation in all areas of language use: grammar, vocabulary, formal and colloquial expression, writing and reading. With native teachers and the most efficient online system in the teaching market.

This thorough and detailed program, based on individual online conversation classes with experienced native teachers, also prepares the student to pass the oral test of Chinese Level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Presentation video

With this customized, high-level program you will be able to understand and use simple, frequently used expressions"

Introduction

Teachers and psychologists, experts in languages, believe that the best way to stimulate language learning is not to subject the student to formalized and linear learning -for example, with rote learning- but to encourage imagination and learning through sensory exploration in order to be able to understand and interpret what surrounds us.

This allows the brain to work and learn a foreign language in the most natural way possible, in the same way that we learned our mother tongue.

With this personalized, high-level program you will learn to communicate easily in everyday situations and in common contexts. You will have an effective learning program and native teachers who are experts in online teaching.

Put your trust in our university professors. They will prepare you with different expression and interaction activities in order to pass the oral part of the Chinese A1 certificate

In TECH's preparation course for the CEFR A1 level test you will find more than 300 activities focused on pronunciation and phonetics

It is proven that learning languages increases your intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks"

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society.

Nowadays, you must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes your proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR learning"

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH we offer you the only intensive program designed to prepare you to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

Finally learn to speak Chinese fluently and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. The TECH CEFR certificate is valid for life.

“

With this preparation program you will have all the necessary knowledge and competences to pass the A1 level”

03

What Is Level A1?

Level A1 is part of the Basic User Level, which is further divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Basic User Levels (A1 and A2). The first course covers the requirements of the A1 proficiency level as established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, the only official system in the European Union for recognizing and accrediting language proficiency and the only certificate that has official validity and is requested by universities, companies, competitive examinations, etc.

A<sub>1</sub>

In TECH's Individual Online Conversation Classes for A1 Chinese preparation program, we prepare you thoroughly to obtain your A1 Chinese certificate"

What are the A1 Level Skills?

At this level, as defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages, students progress in language skills to develop what are considered "Basic User" skills with the ability to:

Improve your skills in this language and certify your level quickly and easily thanks to everything you will learn in this excellent program offered by TECH"

Understand and use common everyday expressions and simple sentences to satisfy immediate needs

02

Interact in an elementary way as long as the interlocutor speaks slowly and clearly and is willing to cooperate

03

Introduce yourself and others, ask for and give basic personal information about your address, your belongings, and people you know

Level A1 (Access) is considered to be the lowest level of general language use, the point at which learners can interact in a simple way, can ask and answer questions about themselves, about where they live, about the people they know and the things they have, can make simple statements in areas of immediate need or on very everyday topics and can respond to such questions when they are put to them, rather than simply relying on a very limited, rehearsed and lexically organized repertoire of phrases used in specific situations.

A1 level Self-Assessment Chart

What will I be able to do after completing the course?

Comprehension

Listening Comprehension

- ♦ Recognize very basic, commonly-used words and expressions relating to themselves, their family and their immediate environment when spoken slowly and clearly

Speaking

Oral Interaction

- ♦ Participate in a simple conversation, as long as the other person is willing to repeat what they have said or say it in other words and at a slower speed, and help them formulate what they are trying to say
- ♦ Ask and answer simple questions on topics of immediate need or very common issues

Oral Expression

- ♦ Use simple expressions and phrases to describe the place where they live and the people they know

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level A1

(According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ♦ Possess a basic repertoire of simple words and phrases related to personal information and specific situations

Correction

- ♦ Showcase limited control of a few simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns within a memorized repertoire

Fluency

- ♦ Manage very brief, isolated and prepared expressions, using pauses to search for expressions, articulate less common words and correct communication

Interaction

- ♦ Ask and answer questions related to personal data.
- ♦ Participate in a conversation in a simple way, but communication must be based entirely on repetition, rephrasing and correction of sentences.

Coherence

- ♦ Link words or groups of words with very basic and linear connectors such as "and" and "then"

Download and practice vocabulary: more than 50 pages of lexical cards and glossaries

Testing & Retesting

---

We periodically evaluate and re-evaluate your knowledge throughout the entire Chinese A1 preparation course.

- We will work with more than 100 activities for different oral skills
- We will subject you to real conversation situations with native speakers
- We will work on mock exams so that you are 100% prepared

Skills-Based Practice

If the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes the consolidation of a language through the acquisition of skills and bases its tests on these skills, why don't most of the online preparation courses for the level certificate work according to skills? In TECH you will work on all the oral skills established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages in each of the subjects through an innovative method that is 100% adapted to European guidelines. In this program, we work according to skills, with more than 100 different activities in order to prepare students to obtain their Chinese A1 certificate.

Simulated Learning Scenarios

At TECH, we believe in the importance of linguistic immersion to lay the foundations of a language as well as in storytelling to favor identification and first-person learning. Therefore, we present you with real and everyday situations with people like you who will face a new language and have to overcome all different kinds of problems. In this program we will expose you to real dialogues and conversation exercises designed and presented by experts and native speakers.

Specific Virtual Classes for CEFR A1

Are you ready for the exam? Our native teachers will explain all the tips and tricks you can use to pass the course with total guarantee of success, as well as the subjects you need to prepare better, the exercises that appear most frequently, mistakes to avoid, resources that can help you in certain situations, etc.

Take the sessions with you on your cell phone and view them wherever you want!

Do you want to revisit the class afterwards and review where you made mistakes or how a word was pronounced? Download the recorded session and watch it again.

An interactive chat to share queries, expressions, complex words, etc. in writing.

In addition:

The student will be provided with the following interaction and communication tools, which will be combined throughout the course to obtain the desired level of skills at the level in question.

These are:

- Internal messaging tools with teachers and tutors
- Chat tools for written interaction
- Telephone assistance to resolve technical questions or incidents
- Technical services contact e-mail

Our Methodology

This intensive course of Online Conversation Classes for the Preparation of the Chinese A1 Level Certificate is 100% based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). To do this, we use a method of practicing oral competence in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the content required by the Framework, preparing thoroughly, with the help of native teachers, to pass the test.

In no other course will you work at your own pace, with native teachers, in individual classes focused on specific practice of the CEFR competences”

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's Chinese Level A1 oral proficiency preparation program offers you a method based on interaction and synchronous and direct communication between teacher and student to thoroughly prepare for the oral level certification test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context, and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the official test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments, and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

TECH offers you the highest quality and quantity in the academic landscape, with hundreds of exercises and resources for you to keep improving your level step by step

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Relearning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed in 2015 to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives, etc.) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards

Relearning Methodology

We prevent your motivation from waning and offer you the best learning environment.

TECH's intensive conversation classes program is based on synchronous communication, in real time, as this type of interaction is proven to reinforce personal participation, work interaction, social-emotional relationships and personal interactions, increasing motivation. (Hrastinski, 2008).

...with a personalized and expert-led syllabus...

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, answer your questions or study recommendations.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, and memories, but we also know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus, thereby retaining it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called "Neurocognitive context-dependent learning", the different elements of our intensive Chinese A1 preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take their official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

...and all this with teachers at the forefront of technology and education...

Study wherever and however you want: connect with your mobile device and learn with the best native teachers

Immersion in Real Situations

We present you with real conversational situations with native speakers with different accents in different contexts.

Skills-Based Practice

At TECH you will work on all the oral skills established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

Pronunciation and Phonetics Practice

At TECH we focus our method on repetition as the best way to consolidate your learning.

Course Objectives

The Level A1 Chinese Conversation Classes program is designed entirely by university teachers so that you acquire the necessary oral skills to take the exam and accredit your level through practice, studying, repetition, personalized supervision, but above all, thanks to your efforts and the educational excellence of the TECH method.

Improve your oral skills and competences with more than 100 practical exercises to pass the CEFR Chinese Level A1”

General Objectives

01

Solve simple communicative tasks and perform the basic functions of these tasks, both in an educational environment and in everyday situations

02

Interact and express themselves in these situations in an elementary but adequate way, in a standard register of spoken language

03

Define the most relevant social aspects of everyday life situations and recognize the most common forms of social relationships

04

Use the linguistic resources necessary to get by in basic communication situations

05

Develop resources and tools that enable them to assess and improve their own learning and use of the language

Specific Objectives

Oral Comprehension

- Understand speech that is slow, carefully articulated and with enough pauses to assimilate meaning
- Understand instructions that are explained slowly and carefully, and able to follow directions if they are simple and brief

In TECH's preparation course for the CEFR A1 level test you will find more than 100 activities focused on developing your oral skills

Oral Expression

- Engage in conversations in a straightforward manner, but communication is totally dependent on slower-paced repetitions, rephrasing and rectifications
- Ask and answer simple questions, make simple statements, and respond to statements made to them in areas of immediate need or on very everyday topics
- Understand common expressions aimed at satisfying simple, everyday needs as long as the interlocutor collaborates by addressing them in clear, slow speech and repeats what they do not understand
- Understand questions and instructions addressed to them clearly and slowly, understanding simple and brief directions
- Introduce oneself and use basic greetings and farewell expressions. Ask how people are doing and express their reactions to the news
- Understand everyday expressions aimed at satisfying simple concrete needs provided that the speaker collaborates by addressing them in clear, slow speech and repeats what they do not understand
- Understand questions and instructions if spoken slowly and carefully, and understand short, simple directions on how to get to a place Can ask someone for something and vice versa
- Ask someone for something and vice versa. Good command of numbers, quantities, prices and schedules
- Make time indications by means of sentences such as, for example, "next week, last Friday, in November, at three o'clock"
- Respond in an interview to simple and direct questions about personal data, if spoken very slowly and clear, without idioms or set phrases

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- Become familiar with the most relevant social aspects of everyday life situations, as well as with those related to their own field, which will result in the basic adaptation of their behavior to these situations and in the understanding or adequate use of the lexicon and functional exponents
- Recognize and use the most common forms of social relations and treatment, within a standard register. In everyday social situations, recognize and use the usual forms of address used to greet, say goodbye, address someone, thank, apologize, ask permission, take an interest in people and respond to an offer
- Understand the behaviors and values that are different from one's own and that underlie the most evident and everyday socio-cultural aspects

Linguistic Competence

- Manage a basic repertoire of vocabulary and expressions related to the most common situations and functions foreseen in the syllabus
- Develop a very limited control of linguistic resources with systematic errors that usually occur at this level

In order to consolidate all these skills you will have access to 50 sessions designed by expert teachers and based 100% on the CEFR”

08

Course Structure and Content

These Conversation Classes have been created to meet the individual needs of each student, reinforcing both the basic oral skills of Level A1, as well as areas of interest to the student. The language is practiced from the first day with an individual teacher who will point out the different mistakes and ways to improve in order to achieve a basic control of the spoken language.

Where, When and How is it Taught?

This course takes place over 4 months and consists of forty 60-minute live sessions taught by native teachers.

Each session is structured as follows:

- ♦ Oral interaction skills practice
- ♦ Oral expression skills practice
- ♦ Simulation of real situations
- ♦ Tips and tricks to prepare for the test
- ♦ Summary and closing
- ♦ Download printable sheets

You will analyze errors individually with your assigned teacher, further boosting your spoken language improvement”

A1 Level Learning Objectives

In each program, native teachers prepare a series of aspects that the student must master in order to satisfactorily achieve the course goals. Thanks to personalized tutoring, all the proposed objectives can be achieved in the shortest time possible, thanks to effective and efficient teaching.

- Help to learn the language from scratch, polishing common mistakes and offering methods to become more fluent in speech
- Master the use of new basic words to develop conversations in different contexts
- Assimilate grammatical rules and listening comprehension with a personalized approach to the needs of each student
- Focus on everyday issues, such as individual presentations, family, work, travel or daily routine
- Enable the student to initiate and maintain a simple conversation on their own, making use of the most common language

You will focus your practice to exceed by far the CEFR Level A1”

"I always wanted to learn to speak Chinese, but in the courses I signed up for, I never made enough progress. With this program I have felt the opposite. The teachers are excellent, they solve all your doubts and their teaching method is very effective. Now that I have accredited my A1 level in Chinese I plan to continue with them and certify my A2 level"

The Professional Benefits of Chinese

The Chinese language, the highest expression of Chinese culture, based on symbols, is more than 5,000 years old and gives rise to more than 55 languages and 2,000 dialects as a result of its geographical, phonetic and dialectical variants. Mandarin Chinese is the official language of the People's Republic of China and is also spoken in countries such as Cambodia, Burma, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Taiwan.

Mandarin Chinese is an original Beijing dialect which, according to official statistics, is the most widely spoken language in the world with more than 1.3 billion speakers. It is one of the six official languages of the United Nations (UN) along with Arabic, English, Russian, Spanish and French.

Nowadays, it seems essential in the multicultural and global society in which we live to broaden our knowledge and teaching of the Chinese language, to know its language, habits and customs, which will lead us to improve our international and commercial relations, to close economic agreements and to establish direct contact with Chinese citizens.

China is in fashion. Its spectacular growth is increasingly attracting entrepreneurs who are looking for an opportunity in the Asian colossus. But doing business in China can be a nightmare if you are not prepared. The cultural differences are so vast that they extend to all aspects of the business world: negotiation, contracts, legislation or a simple working dinner. For this reason, guanxi or social relations should also be studied.

Understanding the cultural context of communication is fundamental to successfully decoding a message"

11

Assessment and Certification

The main assessment objective at TECH is that the student consolidates what they have learned and is aware of their progress. For this reason, after completing each block, the student is shown a report of the results, which visually indicates the skills that they should strengthen.

“

TECH's A1 level conversation classes program is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate”

Certification

At the end of the course the student will receive a certificate of recognition that confirms that they are prepared to obtain official certification for this level.
