01 Welcome

This high-level training, designed by university professors, will enable the student to learn to communicate correctly in everyday situations, in somewhat more complex contexts, in a fluent manner. It has an effective learning programme and native teachers who are experts in online teaching.

This training, based on personalized and individual online conversation classes with experienced native teachers, prepares you to pass the oral test of Chinese Level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

Its main objective is to help the student to acquire the necessary oral skills to be able to certify their level of Chinese and thus qualify for the enormous opportunities offered by this country, which has been a world economic and cultural power for several years.

Presentation video

Mastering a language is essential in today's world. Stand out professionally with this comprehensive program and take the level leap you need"

Introduction

Teachers and psychologists Technology Experts, believe that the best way to stimulate language learning is not to subject the learner to formalized, linear learning - for example, with rote learning - but rather, to encourage imagination and learning through sensory exploration in order to be able to understand and interpret what is around us.

This allows the brain to work and learn a second language in the most natural way possible, in the same way that we learned our mother tongue.

With this high-level programme you will learn to communicate fluently in situations that require a superior knowledge of the language. It has an effective learning programme and native teachers who are experts in online teaching.

Our university teachers will prepare you with different activities of expression and interaction to pass the oral part of the Chinese B1 certificate.

You will be able to understand frequently used phrases and expressions related to important areas of expertise.

It is proven that learning languages increases your Intelligence. Learning a foreign language strengthens the brain's neural networks"

José Antonio Marina.
Philosopher, writer and teacher.

02

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society.

Nowadays, you must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes your proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

tech 10 | Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH we offer you the only intensive program designed to prepare you to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

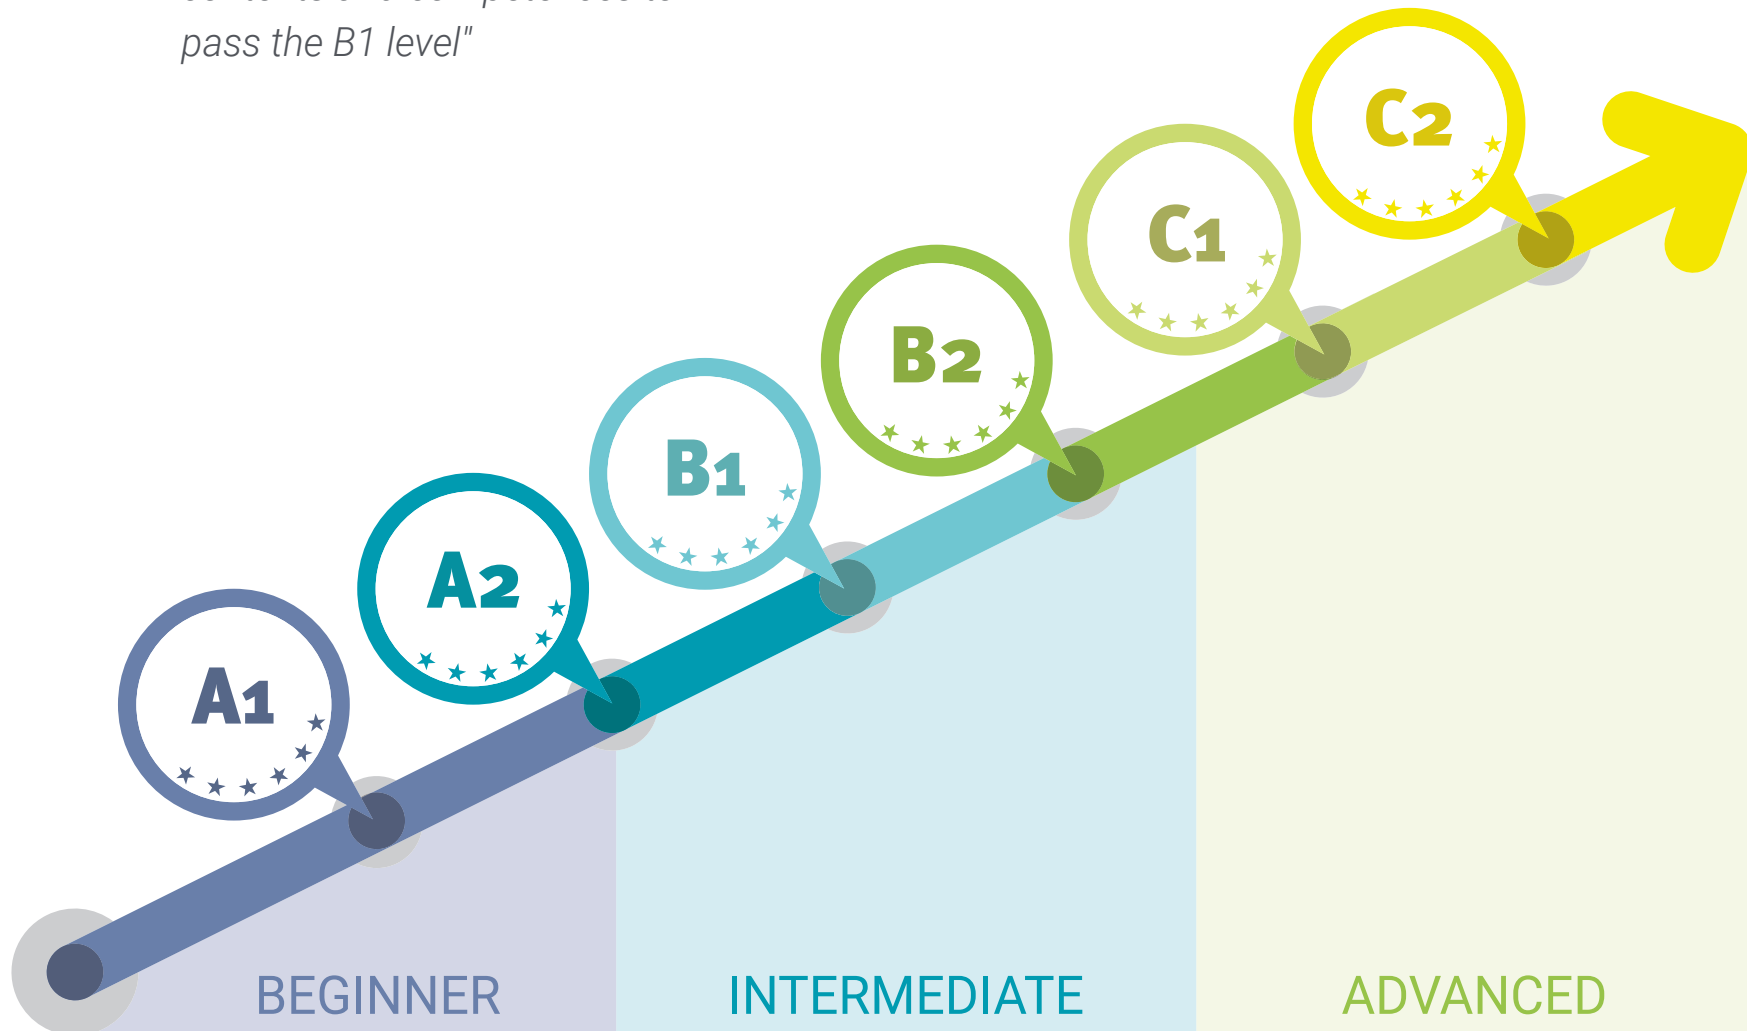

Learn to speak Chinese and make the most of it by obtaining an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. The TECH CEFR certificate is valid for life.

With this preparation program you will have all the necessary contents and competences to pass the B1 level”

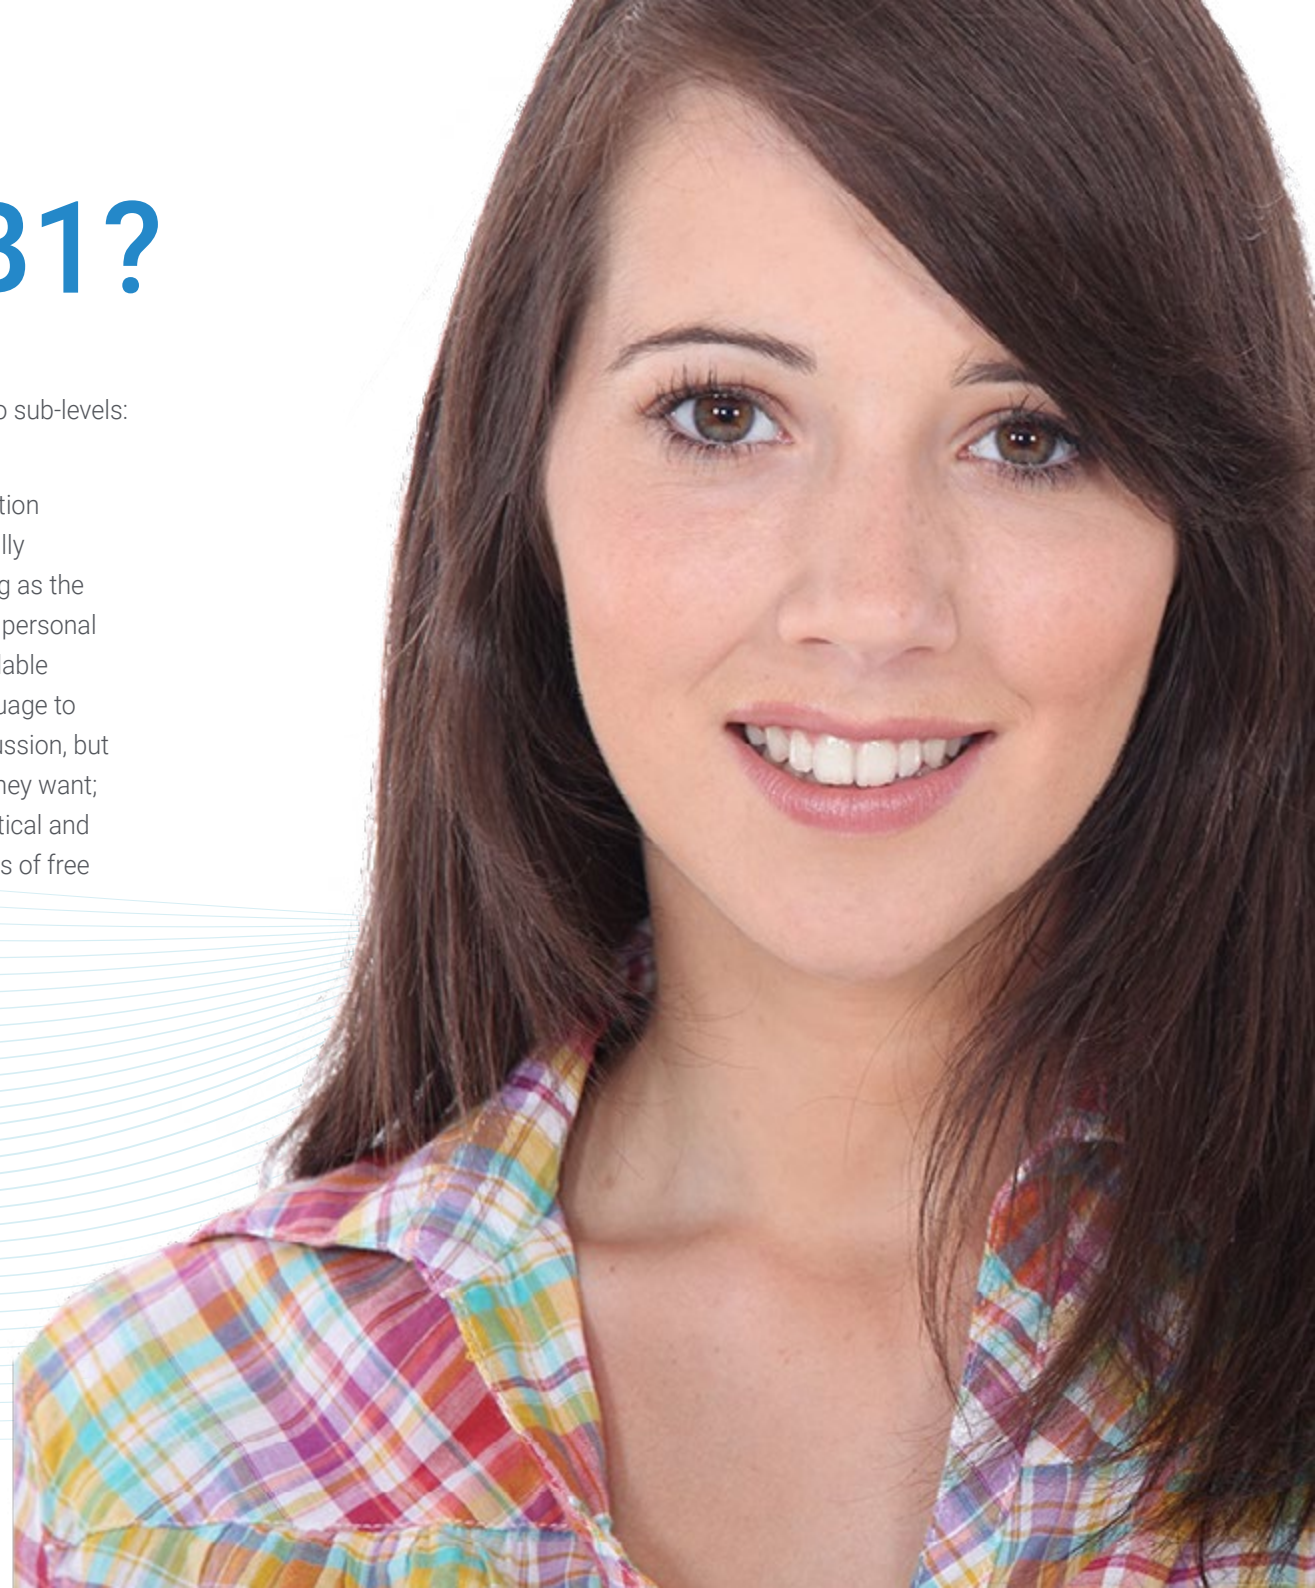

03

What Is Level B1?

Level B2 is part of the Proficient User Level, which is further divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Proficient User Independent (B1 and B2).

B1 level has two main features: The first is the ability to maintain an interaction and make oneself understood in a variety of situations; for example: generally understanding the main ideas of extended discussions around them as long as the speech is clearly articulated at standard language level; offers and asks for personal opinions in an informal discussion with friends; expresses in an understandable way the main idea they want to get across; flexibly uses broad, simple language to express much of what they want; is able to carry on a conversation or discussion, but can sometimes be difficult to understand when trying to say exactly what they want; expresses themselves understandably, although pauses for some grammatical and lexical planning and some correctness are evident, especially in long periods of free production.

The second feature is the ability to know how to deal flexibly with everyday problems, such as, for example: coping with less common situations in public transport, the typical situations that often arise when making travel reservations through an agency or when traveling; participates in conversations on usual matters without having anticipated it; being able to raise complaints; taking the initiative in an interview or consultation (e.g., knows how to initiate a new topic), although still being noticeably dependent on the interviewer during the interaction; knowing how to ask someone to clarify or develop what he or she has just said.

In TECH's Individual Online Conversation Classes for B1 Chinese preparation program, we prepare you thoroughly to obtain your B1 Chinese certificate"

What are the B1 Level Skills?

01

Can understand the main points of clear, standard-language texts on familiar matters, whether in work, study or leisure situations

02

Knows how to deal with most of the situations that may arise during a trip in areas where the language is used

Improve your skills in this language and certify your level quickly and easily thanks to everything you will learn in this excellent program offered by TECH”

03

Produce simple and coherent texts on topics that are familiar to him/her or in which he/she has a personal interest

04

Can describe experiences, events, desires and aspirations, as well as briefly justify their opinions or explain their plans

B1 level Self-Assessment Chart

What will I be able to do after completing the course?

Qualitative aspects of spoken language usage for Level B1

(According to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages)

What is expected to be achieved with this level?

Scope

- ♦ Possess a large enough linguistic repertoire to get by and an adequate vocabulary to express themselves, albeit hesitantly and with circumlocutions, on topics such as their family, hobbies and interests, work, travel and current

Correction

- ♦ Use with reasonable accuracy a repertoire of commonly used formulas and structures associated with predictable situations

Fluency

- ♦ Continue to speak in a comprehensible manner, although pauses for grammatical, lexical planning and correction are evident, especially during long periods of free speech

Interaction

- ♦ Initiate, maintain and end simple face-to-face conversations on everyday topics of personal interest
- ♦ Repeat part of what someone has said to confirm mutual understanding

Coherence

- ♦ Link a series of short, distinct and simple elements to enable a linear sequence of related ideas

Download and practice vocabulary: more than 50 pages of lexical cards and glossaries.

- We will work with more than 100 activities for different oral skills.
- We will subject you to real conversation situations with native speakers.
- We will work on mock exams so that you are 100% prepared.

Skills-based Practice

If the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages establishes the consolidation of a language through the acquisition of skills and bases its official tests on these skills, why don't most of the online preparation courses for the level certificate work according to skills? In TECH you will work on all the oral skills established by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages in each of the subjects through an innovative method that is 100% adapted to European guidelines. In this program we work according to skills, with more than 100 different activities in order to prepare you to obtain your official Chinese B1 certificate.

Simulated Learning Scenarios

At TECH, we believe in the importance of linguistic immersion to lay the foundations of a language as well as in storytelling to favor identification and first-person learning. Therefore, we present you with real and everyday situations with people like you who will face a new language and have to overcome all different kinds of problems. In this training we will expose you to real dialogues and conversation exercises designed and presented by experts and native speakers.

Specific Virtual Classes for CEFR B1

Are you ready for the exam? Our native teachers will explain to you all the tips and tricks you can use to pass the course with total guarantee of success, as well as the subjects you need to prepare better, the exercises that appear most frequently, mistakes to avoid, resources that can help you in certain situations, etc. All this prepared on video for you to consult when and as you wish.

Take the sessions with you on your cell phone and view them wherever you want!

Do you want to revisit the class afterwards and review where you made mistakes or how a word was pronounced? Download the recorded session and watch it again.

An interactive chat to share queries, expressions, complex words, etc. in writing.

In addition:

The student will be provided with the following interaction and communication tools, which will be combined throughout the course to obtain the desired level of skills at the level in question.

These are:

- Internal messaging tools with teachers and tutors
- Chat tools for written interaction
- Discussion forums for the development of written expression and interaction skills
- Telephone assistance to resolve technical questions or incidents
- Technical services contact e-mail

Our Methodology

This intensive course of Online Conversation Classes for the Preparation of the Chinese B1 Level Certificate is 100% based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). To do this, we use a method of practising oral competence in which the student works intensively and repeatedly on all the content required by the Framework, preparing thoroughly, with the help of native teachers, to pass the test.

In no other course will you work at your own pace, with native teachers, in individual classes focused on specific practice of the CEFR competences”

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's B1 Chinese Conversation Classes program offers you a method based on interaction and synchronous and direct communication between teacher and student comprehensive preparation for the official oral level certification test. Our goal is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context, and thus guarantee your success in passing the level exam. To this end, we emulate the official test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Re-learning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

TECH offers you the highest quality and quantity in the academic landscape, with hundreds of exercises and resources for you to keep improving your level step by step.

This methodology, at the forefront of world teaching, is called Re-learning. Our language school is the first licensed to employ this successful method, having managed, in 2015, to improve the overall satisfaction levels (teaching quality, quality of materials, course structure, objectives,) of the students who complete the courses with respect to the indicators of the best language courses on the market.

The overall score obtained by our learning system is 8.01, according to the highest international standards.

Re-learning Methodology

We prevent your motivation from waning and offer you the best learning environment.

TECH's intensive oral proficiency preparation program is based on synchronous, real-time communication, as this type of interaction has been proven to enhance personal involvement, work interaction, social-emotional relationships and personal interactions, increasing motivation. (Krastinski, 2008).

...with a personalized and expert-led training itinerary...

In order to promote maximum contact with the Language School, we provide you with a tutor so that you can write essays, answer your questions or study recommendations.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, memories, but we know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus and retain it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called “Neurocognitive context-dependent learning”, the different elements of our intensive Chinese B1 preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take their official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

... and all this with teachers at the forefront of technology and education...

Study wherever and however you want: connect with your mobile device and learn with the best native teachers.

Immersion in real situations

We present you with real conversational situations with native speakers with different accents in different contexts.

Skills-based Practice

Course Objectives

This programme is entirely designed by university teachers so that you acquire the necessary oral skills to take the exam that accredits your level and pass it through practice, training, repetition, personalised monitoring, but, above all, thanks to your effort and the teaching excellence of the TECH method.

Improve your oral skills and competences with hundreds of practical exercises to pass the CEFR Chinese B1 level"

General Objectives

01

Solve simple communicative tasks and perform the basic functions of these tasks.

02

Use the language learned as a means of communication and personal expression, both in the classroom and in a wide range of face-to-face or virtual situations and on both concrete and abstract topics, including cultural ones.

03

Understand, interact and express themselves in these situations, orally in an adequate, reasonably flexible, precise and correct manner.

04

Describe the sociocultural aspects related to the usual situations, as well as those related to their own field and use the appropriate social formulas, gestures, register and treatment in these situations.

05

Internalize the appropriate and necessary linguistic resources for the planned communicative activities, through functional and formal practice.

06

Encourage and diversify the use of strategies that speed up communication and facilitate learning.

07

Manage tools to evaluate and improve their own learning and use of the language.

Specific Objectives

Oral Comprehension

- ♦ Understand concrete everyday or work-related information and identify both the general message and specific details as long as the speech is clearly articulated and with a normal accent
- ♦ Understand the main ideas of clear, standard speech on everyday topics, related to work, school or leisure time, including short narratives
- ♦ Generally follow the main ideas of a long discussion going on around them, provided that the discourse is clearly articulated at a standard language level
- ♦ Understand, in general terms, simple and short speeches on everyday topics provided they are delivered with standard and clear pronunciation.
- ♦ Understand a lecture or talk that deals with their area of expertise, provided that the subject matter is familiar and the presentation is simple and clearly structured
- ♦ Understand simple technical information, such as operating instructions for frequently used appliances, as well as follow detailed instructions
- ♦ Understand the main ideas of radio news and other simpler recorded material dealing with everyday topics delivered relatively slowly and clearly.
- ♦ Understand the information content of most recorded or broadcast material related to topics of personal interest with clear standard pronunciation

Oral Expression

- ♦ Carry out, with a reasonable degree of fluency, a simple description of a variety of topics that are of interest to them, presenting them as a linear sequence of elements
- ♦ Give simple descriptions on a variety of common topics within your specialty
- ♦ Give simple narratives or descriptions with a reasonable degree of fluency following a linear sequence of elements
- ♦ Make detailed accounts of experiences describing feelings and reactions.
- ♦ Report the details of unpredictable events, such as, for example, an accident
- ♦ Relate book or movie plots and describe your reactions to them
- ♦ Describe dreams, hopes and ambitions
- ♦ Describe real or imagined events. Tell stories
- ♦ Provide brief rationales and explanations for opinions, plans and actions.
- ♦ Develop arguments well enough so that they can be understood without difficulty most of the time.
- ♦ Make short rehearsed statements on a relevant topic within their specialty, which are clearly intelligible despite being accompanied by an unmistakably foreign accent and intonation
- ♦ Deliver a brief, prepared presentation on a topic within their specialty, with sufficient clarity to be followed without difficulty most of the time and whose main ideas are explained with reasonable accuracy. Can also answer supplemental questions, but may have to ask for repetition if spoken quickly

Specific Objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- ◆ Know how to carry out a wide variety of linguistic functions, using the most common exponents of these functions in a neutral register.
- ◆ Be aware of the most important rules of courtesy and act appropriately.
- ◆ Be aware of the most significant differences that exist between the customs, usages, attitudes, values and beliefs prevailing in the community in question and their own, and know how to identify such differences.
- ◆ Know how to carry out basic language functions such as exchanging and requesting information and expressing opinions and attitudes in a simple way.
- ◆ Adapt their expression to deal with less common and even difficult situations. Use a wide range of simple linguistic elements with the flexibility to express much of what is wanted.
- ◆ Intervene in debates on everyday topics using an appropriate phrase to take the floor. Initiate, maintain and end simple face-to-face conversations on everyday topics or of personal interest
- ◆ Perform, with reasonable fluency, simple narratives or descriptions, through a linear sequence of elements
- ◆ Link a series of short, specific and simple elements to enable a linear sequence of related ideas

Linguistic Competence

- ◆ Have sufficient linguistic elements to describe unpredictable situations, to explain the main points of an idea or problem with reasonable accuracy, and to express thoughts on abstract or cultural topics, such as music and movies.
- ◆ Have enough linguistic elements to get by and enough vocabulary to express themselves with some hesitation and circumlocution on topics such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel and current events, but lexical limitations cause repetition and sometimes even difficulties in formulation.
- ◆ Have sufficient vocabulary to express themselves with some circumlocution on most topics relevant to their daily lives, such as family, hobbies and interests, work, travel, and current events.
- ◆ Demonstrate a good command of elementary vocabulary, even if significant errors are made when expressing more complex thoughts, or when dealing with unusual topics and situations.
- ◆ Communicate with reasonable accuracy in everyday situations; generally have good grammatical control, although with an obvious influence of the native language
- ◆ Use with reasonable accuracy a repertoire of commonly used "formulas " and structures associated with predictable situations
- ◆ Have a clearly intelligible pronunciation, even if their foreign accent is sometimes evident and sporadic mispronunciations are made.

In order to consolidate all these competencies you will have 40 sessions designed by expert teachers and based 100% on the CEFR”

08

Course Structure and Content

One of the best ways to make rapid progress in the mastery of a language is to practice it continuously. Therefore, this university program offers a completely personalized tutoring, adapted to the student's own objectives and interests. Together with a team of native-speaking teachers, the student will go through the main everyday situations they may encounter, such as conversations about sports or nature.

Where, When and How is it Taught?

This course takes place over 4 months and consists of 40 60-minute live sessions taught by native-speaking teachers.

Each session is structured as follows:

- ◆ Practice of oral interaction skills
- ◆ Practice of oral expression skills
- ◆ Simulation of real situations
- ◆ Tips and tricks to prepare for the test
- ◆ Summary and closing
- ◆ Download printable sheets

You will improve your communication skills thanks to a personalized attention, with a native teacher dedicated to your own goals”

B1 Level Learning Objectives

In each program, native teachers prepare a series of items that the student must overcome in order to satisfactorily achieve the course goals. Thanks to personalized tutoring, all the proposed objectives can be achieved in the shortest time possible, thanks to effective and efficient teaching.

- Advance to an intermediate level of language proficiency
- Familiarize with new words and more advanced common grammar
- Develop listening, reading, writing and speaking skills to cope in a multitude of situations
- Speak with some fluency about sports, nature, music and life goals or personal aspirations

You will noticeably improve your fluency in a multitude of more advanced everyday situations, being able to function more naturally”

"I had basic notions of Chinese and thought I would never be able to advance, but with this intensive program I have managed to improve my Chinese expression and oral comprehension considerably. The teachers are excellent, they solve all your doubts and their teaching method is very effective. Now that I have accredited my B1 level in Chinese I plan to continue with them and certify my B2 level"

Mireia Casanova

A student from Spain

"I am currently studying Chinese level B1 and I am delighted with the content and teachers at this online university. I feel that I am learning quickly and that my pronunciation has improved dramatically. Having native teachers is definitely one of the best things I would highlight about this program"

Ismael Gutiérrez

A student from Argentina

The Professional Benefits of Chinese

The Chinese language, the highest expression of Chinese culture, based on symbols, is more than 5,000 years old and gives rise to more than 55 languages and 2,000 dialects as a result of its geographical, phonetic and dialectical variants. Mandarin Chinese is the official language of the People's Republic of China and is also spoken in countries such as Cambodia, Burma, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Taiwan.

Mandarin Chinese is an original Beijing dialect which, according to official statistics, is the most widely spoken language in the world with more than 1.3 billion speakers. It is one of the six official languages of the United Nations (UN) along with Arabic, English, French, Russian, Spanish and French.

Nowadays, it seems essential in the multicultural and global society in which we live to broaden our knowledge and teaching of the Chinese language, to know its language, habits and customs, which will lead us to improve our international and commercial relations, to close economic agreements and to establish direct contact with Chinese citizens.

China is in fashion. Its spectacular growth is increasingly attracting Spanish entrepreneurs who are looking for an opportunity in the Asian colossus. But doing business in China can be a nightmare if you are not prepared. The cultural differences are so vast that they extend to all aspects of the business world: negotiation, contracts, legislation or a simple working dinner. For this reason, guanxi or social relations should also be studied.

Understanding the cultural context of communication is fundamental to successfully decoding a message"

11

Assessment and Certification

The main evaluation objective in TECH is that the student consolidates what they have learned and is aware of their progress. For this reason, after completing each block, the student is shown a report of the results, which visually indicates the skills that they should strengthen.

TECH'S B1 level oral communication skills preparation program is the only one that also awards you with a university certificate”

Certification

Upon completion of the course, the student will receive a certificate of recognition that will guarantee their preparation to obtain, if the student wishes, the certification of that level.
