Presentation video

You are one step away from mastering advanced conversations in French, and successfully certifying yourself at the B2 Level thanks to this TECH program"

Introduction

TECH offers an achievable challenge, using the best methodology: personalized classes. Most French language schools and academies offer traditional teaching, based on the repetition of simple linguistic structures with no connection to properly structured content or concrete skills. However, teachers and psychologists believe the best way to stimulate language learning is not to subject the learner to formalized, linear learning - for example, rote learning - but rather, to encourage imagination and learning through sensory exploration in order to be able to understand and interpret the world around us.

This way, the brain works and learns a language in the most natural way possible, in the same way that we learned our mother tongue. That is why TECH offers you B2 Level French Conversation Classes with professors and native speakers who will provide you with common and specific communicative situations, 100% online and in a personalized way, with an innovative learning methodology. In this way you will adapt to the structure of the French language at an advanced level and will be able to hold complex conversations, knowing that you have the quality guarantee of a prestigious university.

In 40 sessions you will learn what you need to obtain the CEFR B2 Level in French you have wanted for a long time.

Acquire the communicative skills to socialize properly: Master idiomatic expressions and compound adjectives in French!

You will develop a language level that will allow you to make explicit descriptions, give your point of view and reasonable arguments thanks to the tutelage of native university professors”

Is it Important to Obtain a Language Certificate?

In today's competitive world, speaking other languages is a key part of our modern culture, helping us to expand our knowledge and interact with people from other parts of the world, which helps us to learn about the traditions of other countries, establish friendships or conduct business.

However, simply knowing foreign languages is not enough in modern society.

Nowadays, you must have an official qualification that accredits and recognizes your proficiency in a given language. In fact, many schools, universities and companies only accept candidates who have an official qualification based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The ability to communicate effectively in another language, and accredit it with an official CEFR qualification, is an essential requirement for your academic and professional development. TECH helps you achieve it with intensive 100% CEFR training"

TECH Global University

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is the only officially recognized and accredited system for assessing a student's level of proficiency. Although there are other certification systems, these come from private institutions and are, therefore, not officially valid. The CEFR establishes a single criterion to determine the difficulty of the courses and awards certificates that are recognized throughout the European Union.

At TECH, we offer you the only intensive program designed to prepare you to obtain your official certificate based 100% on the CEFR, the only official system recognized and accepted throughout Europe.

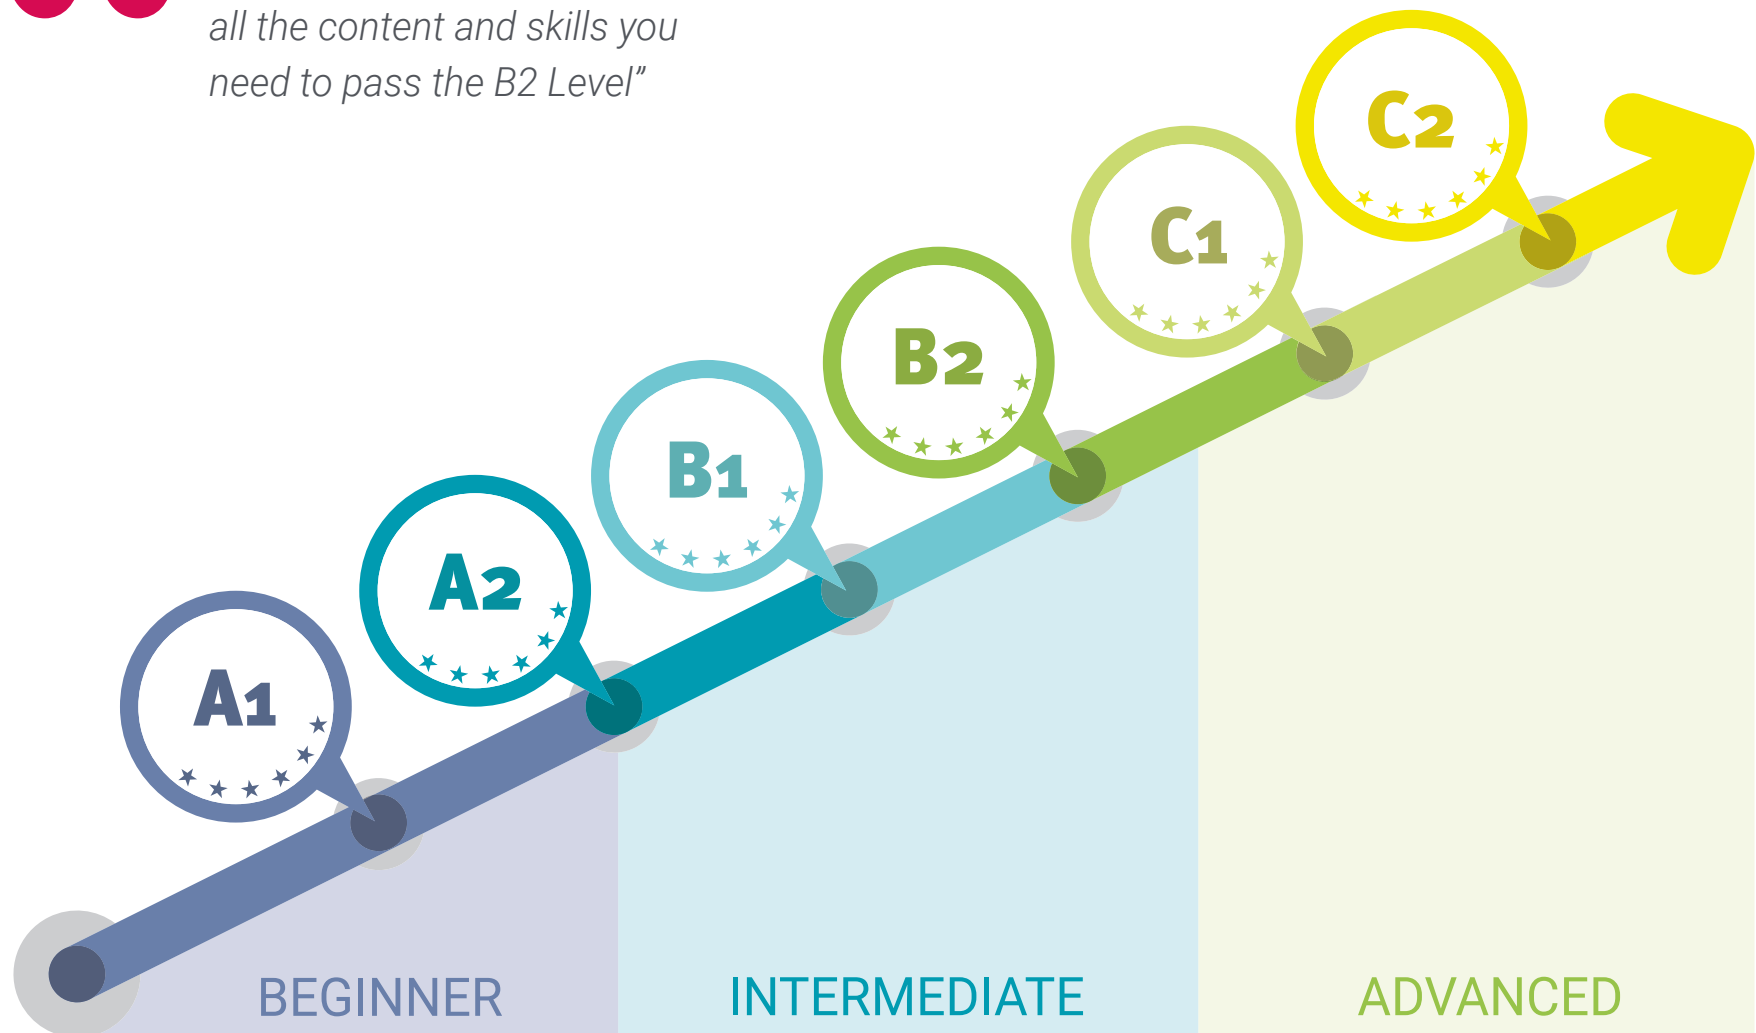

Finally learn to speak fluent French and make the most of it by accrediting it with an official qualification based on the CEFR.

Other private language certification systems require students to periodically recertify their level of proficiency. TECH's CEFR certificate is valid for life.

With this program you will have all the content and skills you need to pass the B2 Level”

03

What Is Level B2?

Level B2 is part of the Independent User Level, which is divided into two sub-levels: First and Second Independent User Level (B2 and B2).

The B2 Level has two main features: the first is the ability to maintain interaction and make oneself understood in a variety of situations, for example: learners generally understand the main ideas of extended discussions around them, provided the speech is clearly articulated at a standard language level; offer and ask for opinions in an informal discussion with friends; clearly express the main idea they want to get across; flexibly use broad, simple language to express much of what they want; are able to carry on a conversation or discussion, but can sometimes be difficult to understand when trying to say exactly what they mean; express themselves understandably, although they pause for some grammatical and lexical planning, and some mistake-correcting is evident, especially in long periods language flow.

In TECH's B2 French Online Conversation Classes program, we will thoroughly prepare you to obtain your B2 French certificate”

What are the B2 Level Skills?

01

It is the ability to understand the main ideas in complex texts which deal with both concrete and abstract topics, even if they are of a technical nature, as long as they are within their field of expertise

02

You can interact with native speakers with a sufficient degree of fluency and naturalness, so that communication is effortless for the interlocutors

Improve your skills in this language and certify your level quickly and easily thanks to everything you will learn in this excellent program offered by TECH”

03

You can produce clear and detailed texts on a range of diverse topics, as well as defend your point of view on general topics, indicating the pros and cons or different options

Only TECH can enable you to successfully achieve the CEFR B2 Level in French in such a short amount of time”

The TECH Global University method

Conventional methods of teaching a second language, such as demonstrative classes or mechanical exercises, slow down learning and seriously affect student motivation, as confirmed by statistical data reflecting the failure of the traditional system and methodology.

TECH's B2 French Individual Online Conversation Classes offers you a method based on interaction and synchronous and direct communication between teacher and student to comprehensively prepare students for the official Oral Level Certification Test. Our objective is to strengthen your skills in a changing, real and multicultural context and to guarantee your success in passing the test. To this end, we emulate the official test using mock tests throughout the course.

The student will learn through activities, stories and real contexts, the resolution of everyday and basic communication situations in simulated learning environments and will face real mock exams to prepare intensively for the level certification test.

...All of this is enhanced with the best 100% online teaching methodology: Relearning...

Our school is the first in the world to combine storytelling with a 100% online learning system based on repetition, which combines different elements that represent an evolution with respect to the simple study and performance of exercises.

Our system will allow you to organize your time and learning pace, adapting it to your schedule, and will also allow you to access the contents from any device with an Internet connection (computer, tablet, smartphone)”

According to the latest scientific evidence in the field of neuroscience, not only do we know how to organize information, ideas, images, and memories, but we also know that the place and context where we have learned something is fundamental for us to be able to remember it and store it in the hippocampus, thus retaining it in our long-term memory. In this way, and in what is called Neurocognitive context-dependent learning, the different elements of our B2 French preparation course are connected to the context in which the participant will take their official certification exam in order to guarantee success on the day of the test.

Become aware of the communication and learning strategies that help you the most, so that you can use them intentionally

05

Develop autonomy in the planning, carrying out, evaluation and improvement of your own learning

Specific objectives

Oral Comprehension

- Understand the main ideas of a linguistically complex speech, dealing with both concrete and abstract topics delivered at a standard language level, including technical discussions within their field of expertise
- Understand long speeches and complex lines of reasoning as long as the subject matter is reasonably familiar, and the development of the speech is facilitated by explicit markers
- Understand any type of speech, both face-to-face conversations and broadcast speeches, on topics, usual or not, of personal, social, academic or professional life. Excessive background noise, inadequate structuring of speech or idiomatic use of language affect their comprehension ability
- Pick up with some effort much of what is being said around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in a discussion with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- Follow lively conversations between native speakers
- Understand the main ideas of linguistically complex lectures, talks and reports, and other forms of academic and professional presentation
- Understand statements and messages on concrete and abstract topics, in standard language and at a normal pace

Oral Expression

- Understand most radio documentaries and other recorded or rebroadcast material spoken in standard language, and identify the speaker's mood and tone
 - Understand recordings in standard language that may be encountered in social, professional or academic life, and identify the speaker's points of view and attitudes, as well as the content of the information
- Participate in conversations with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that enables regular interaction with native speakers without strain for either party. Emphasize the personal importance of certain facts and experiences, express and defend points of view with clarity, providing adequate explanations and arguments
 - Speak fluently, accurately and effectively on a wide range of general, academic, professional or leisure topics, clearly marking the relationship between ideas. Communicates spontaneously and has good grammatical control without showing many signs of having to restrict what he/she says and adopting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances
 - Understand in detail what is said in standard language, even in an environment with background noise

- ♦ Approach extensive conversations on most general topics, even in a noisy environment, in a clearly participatory manner
- ♦ Have conversations with native speakers without unintentionally amusing or annoying them, and without demanding different behavior from them than they would have with a native speaker
- ♦ Convey a certain emotion and highlight the personal importance of facts and experiences
- ♦ Follow the rhythm of lively discussions between native speakers. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines of argument convincingly and respond to them
- ♦ Take an active part in informal discussions that occur in everyday situations by making comments, clearly expressing their points of view, evaluating alternative proposals, making hypotheses and responding to them
- ♦ With some effort, pick up much of what is said in discussions going on around them, but may find it difficult to participate effectively in discussions with several native speakers if they do not modify their speech in some way
- ♦ Express and uphold their opinions in discussions by providing appropriate explanations, arguments, and comments
- ♦ Keep up with heated discussions and accurately identify the arguments of different points of view. Express ideas and opinions with precision, present complex lines and respond to them with conviction
- ♦ Understand, with complete certainty, detailed instructions. Contribute to the progress of the work by inviting others to participate, speak up, etc.
- ♦ Outline an issue or problem clearly, speculating on the causes or consequences and comparing the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches
- ♦ Negotiate the resolution of conflicts, such as claiming an unfair traffic fine, claiming financial responsibility for damages caused in an apartment or for culpability in an accident
- ♦ Express their opinions in the event of damages, using persuasive language to claim compensation, and clearly establish the limits of any concession they are willing to make
- ♦ Explain a problem that has arisen and make it clear that the service provider or customer must make concessions
- ♦ Understand and exchange complex information and advice on all matters related to their profession. Communicates detailed information with complete certainty
- ♦ Make clear and detailed descriptions of how to carry out a procedure. Summarizes and communicates information and arguments from a variety of sources
- ♦ Conduct effective and fluent interviews, even spontaneously departing from prepared questions, following the thread and giving interesting answers
- ♦ Take the initiative in an interview, and expand and develop their ideas, either with little help or getting it if needed from the interviewer

Specific objectives

Sociocultural and Sociolinguistic Competence

- ♦ Broaden and diversify your knowledge of sociocultural aspects of communities where they speak the language, acquiring a natural and confident manner of speaking, which doesn't attract attention nor leads to special treatment, different to that given to native speakers. Furthermore, gain knowledge of how to adjust your behavior, reactions, attitude, message and wording to any changes in situation, style and emphasis
- ♦ Identify the most important aspects of a variety of common formal and informal oral and written registers, and appropriately use the expressions, pronunciation and intonation of the most common registers that you are most in contact with
- ♦ Perceive the differentiating characteristics of the Italian language pattern in relation to other widespread or nearby patterns

Linguistic Competence

- ♦ Manage a wide and varied repertoire of linguistic resources, including complex syntax and textual grammar, in order to approach, with naturalness, precision, clarity and cohesion, texts on a wide range of situations and topics, almost without showing that he/she has to limit what he/she wants to say
- ♦ Flexibly adapt to changes in direction, register and emphasis, although hesitations and circumlocutions can still occur
- ♦ Efficiently use a variety of connectors and discourse markers to clearly show the link between different ideas and successfully make the speech cohesive in a flexible and efficient way

- ♦ Possess good command of linguistic resources with very few mistakes. When using complex structures, especially in discourse development, and even more so in oral communication or in less common situations, there are sometimes cohesion or inappropriate register mistakes, as well as sporadic slips or some "resistant" errors in less commonly controlled situations. In these cases, the student will be capable of self-correcting

You will effectively use a wide variety of connectors in spoken discourse, optimally relating ideas and concepts"

"Thanks to TECH's conversation classes, I have seen how my French has advanced rapidly, something I needed for a stay in Bordeaux. The teachers were very close during the classes, which made you forget they were taking place online, and they flew by! The teachers personalize the topics so that you feel comfortable speaking in another language"

Aurora Rodríguez

A Student from Colombia

"Personally, French's a language that has always been difficult for me, but when I heard about these TECH classes I decided to give it a try, since I had to certify my level for a work project. The truth is that I was surprised with the method used, so I recommend it especially to those who, like me, find it difficult to adapt to another language"

The Professional Benefits of French

French is both a working language and an official language of the UN, the European Union, UNESCO, NATO, the International Olympic Committee, the International Red Cross and various other international legal bodies. French is the language of the three cities where the European institutions are located: Strasbourg, Brussels and Luxembourg.

Together with English, it is the only language spoken across the 5 continents and the only language which can be learned in all countries worldwide. According to the Observatoire de la langue Française, a French language control organization, around 220 million people speak French which puts it in 8th place on the list of most spoken languages on the planet. The Francophonie groups together 68 states and governments. French is the most studied foreign language after English.

Speaking French opens up more possibilities for individuals in the international labor market. Knowledge of French opens doors to French companies in France and abroad, in all francophone countries (Canada, Switzerland, Belgium). France, the fifth largest trading power and the third largest destination country for foreign investors, is a major economic partner.

Furthermore, speaking French allows you to study in France, in prestigious universities or in higher education business and engineering schools, ranked among the best higher teaching centers in Europe and worldwide. Students who are proficient in French can receive scholarships from the French Government to study a third year of their degree in France in all disciplines, and earn an internationally recognized certificate.

French is an international language for food, fashion, theatre, visual arts, dance and architecture. Knowing French gives you access to the original versions of the most famous texts in French and Francophone literature, as well as cinema and music”
